John 20:19-31

Today's Gospel is about the impossible becoming possible. Thomas was absent when Jesus appeared to the other apostles. He didn't believe it and wanted to touch Jesus' wounds before he could be certain. When Jesus comes back to grant Thomas' request, all his doubts disappeared.

When the clock ran out at Super Bowl 50, I got this text from my sister-in-law: "We have no idea where Andrew went."

There were 71,000 people at Levi Stadium that day. Yes, Son #1 is 30, but don't tell any mother that her son is lost and expect her not to panic. For the next 30 minutes, I panicked. They had Son #2, but where in San Francisco was Son #1?

Finally this: "Omg. He snuck on the field and touched the trophy. Epic." Wait...what?

Here's what happened: Each person in my brother's Super Bowl group had a post-game on-field pass. When the game ended, they headed down to the field, but Son #1 had to make a pit stop and got separated from them. He realized that he needed to get onto the field and find them. He went up to an event worker and said, "I have this pass. How do I get on the field?" The reply was, "Follow the people in the white coats." I'll let Son #1 pick up the story:

"I followed them like bread crumbs, and pretty soon I was walking through the tunnels. A guy stopped me and said, 'You can't go any farther.' But I knew I had to keep going. So, when he turned his back, I stepped past him and was on the field. Next, I got stuck at a gate where there was a minimum of 200 security guards, shoulder to shoulder, from end zone to end zone. I kicked the gate open and never looked back. All of a sudden, I was mid-field, celebrating with the entire Denver Broncos Super Bowl 50 championship team. I was talking to players, high-fiving everyone, taking pictures with them, slapping them on the shoulder pads. I even said to Peyton Manning, 'Hey, man, you got it done again!' The whole time, I'm thinking, 'I'm going to get thrown out of here.' When I turned around, the Lombardi Trophy was right in front of my face. I reached out as it passed, and I was able to touch it. Mom. I touched the Lombardi Trophy."

His feet not anywhere near close to the ground, Son #1 returned to the hospitality room and found the group. They were wary of his adventure and did not believe one word he was saying. None of them had made it past the gate that Son #1 had kicked open. But, a true millennial, he had the pictures and videos to prove it, also recorded for posterity on Facebook. For the next 20 minutes, he had to explain, blow by blow, what happened and how it happened before they were convinced. What was impossible to the group was proven to be possible.

Thomas, so filled with doubt, had to see to believe. He was being sensible. Never in the history of mankind had a person returned from the dead. But, sensibility has nothing to do with faith. Faith overrides any semblance of reason.

Fr. Steve explained once, "Faith is letting go of control. If you have to control everything, you can't have faith. It is beyond our control." This week, let's see if we can give up that control and have a little faith.

At the April 10th Mass we will be having a "Mass Mob" event. One of our Altar Servers, Mr. Tyler Boyd from Buckhannon is discerning a vocation to the priesthood and has selected the Extraordinary Form Mass as part of his senior project for his AP Literature Class which is to focus on community benefit of one's desired vocation of interest.

The "Mass Mob" movement began in the Buffalo, NY area to raise awareness of closing parishes and spur attendance at Catholic Churches with low attendance. Locally, there is an active Mass Mob group in the Pittsburgh, PA area which attends at least one Catholic Church a month. The group highlights the beauty and history of area churches, and attempts to reach out to unchurched persons and Catholics who no longer attend Mass.

In addition to the Mass time and Confession previously mentioned; the Rosary will be said beginning at 3:30p.m. and there will also be a question and answer session with light refreshments following the Mass for those with questions about the Latin Mass, Priesthood, or Catholicism in general.

WE HAVE AWESOME TEENS!

Just wanted to let everyone know our parish teens and families continue to help at the Clarksburg Mission. Last month was our most successful and rewarding visit. They absolutely loved the food served. We normally prepare tons of food, so there are always leftovers. We decided to change the menu up a little for Lent, and it was hugely successful! We served more than 100 pieces of fish (about 85 fish sandwiches), an enormous pan of tater tots, a huge pan of green beans, 1 1/2 large containers of cottage cheese, six pounds of cole slaw, three pounds of potato salad, 60 cups of homemade fruit delight, and fresh fruit (apples, oranges, and bananas). Almost nothing was left. A big thank you to the faithful teenagers and their parents/loved ones for helping us every other month!

For more information and to volunteer, contact Lesley White @ 269-3632.

SCRIP

Don't forget, some scrip cards are available at any time. So if you find yourself in need of last minute gift, call the parish office to see what is available! Scrip makes the perfect gift!

SAINT OF THE WEEK
St. Julie Billiart Feast day: April 8
 (1751-1816)

St. Julie (Julia) Billiart was born in 1751 and died in 1816. As a child, playing "school" was Julie's favorite game. When she was sixteen, to help support her family, she began to teach "for real". She sat on a haystack during the noon recess and told the biblical parables to the workers. Julie carried on this mission of teaching throughout her life, and the Congregation she founded continues her work.

Julie was the fifth of seven children. She attended a little one room school in Cuvilly. She enjoyed all of her studies, but she was particularly attracted to the religion lessons taught by the parish priest. Recognizing something "special" in Julie, the priest secretly allowed her to make her First Communion at the age of nine, when the normal age at that time, was thirteen. She learned to make short mental prayers and to develop a great love for Jesus in the Eucharist.

A murder attempt on her father shocked her nervous system badly. A period of extremely poor health for Julie began, and was to last for thirty years. For twenty-two of these years she was completely paralyzed. All of her sufferings and pain she offered up to God.

When the French Revolution broke out, Julie offered her home as a hiding place for loyal priests. Because of this, Julie became a hunted prey. Five times in three years she was forced to flee in secret to avoid compromising her friends who were hiding her.

At this time she was privileged to receive a vision. She saw her crucified Lord surrounded by a large group of religious women dressed in a habit she had never seen before. An inner voice told her that these would be her daughters and that she would begin an institute for the Christian education of young girls. She and a rich young woman founded the Sisters of Notre Dame de Namur.

At Amiens, the two women and a few companions began living a religious life in 1803. In 1804, Julie was miraculously cured of her illness and walked for the first time in twenty-two years. In 1805, Julie and three companions made their profession and took their final vows. She was elected as Mother General of the young Congregation.

In 1815, Mother taxed her ever poor health by nursing the wounded and feeding the starving left from the battle of Waterloo. For the last three months of her life, she again suffered much. She died peacefully on April 8, 1816 at 64 years of age. Julie was beatified on May 13, 1906, and was canonized by Pope Paul VI in 1969. Her feast day is April 8th.

Why Blessings Are Given Why won't my priest bless my Bible?

Don't Catholics bless objects all the time?

"Through all the words of sacred Scripture, God speaks only one single Word, his one Utterance in whom he expresses himself completely... For this reason, the Church has always venerated the Scriptures as she venerates the Lord's Body" (Catechism of the Catholic Church, 102-103).

The Bible as the inspired word of God is living and holy. Technically, it does not need a ritual blessing; it is inherently a "sacramental" and set aside for God's purposes. Perhaps it is this unique, sacred nature of the Bible that caused your priest to deny your request. Moreover, some view the Bible as the source of all blessings, since blessings derive meaning and effectiveness from the word of God.

That said, "every baptized person is called to be a 'blessing,' and to bless... Among sacramental blessings (of persons, meals, objects, and places) come first. Every blessing praises God and prays for his gifts" (CCC 1669, 1671). To that end, ordained ministers who wish to give praise and bestow benefit to adults and children preparing for the sacraments— their catechists, or liturgical ministers, for example—may choose to bless such persons, giving thanks for the gift of God's word and its work in their lives. Blessings, after all, "are invoked always with a view to the people who use the objects to be blessed" (Book of Blessings, General Introduction, 12).
