Up Front with Mary Hendricks

Luke 9:11b-17

Today's Gospel is a foreshadowing of what happens at the Last Supper. After Jesus blesses the five loaves and the two fish, he "broke them, and gave them to the disciples to set before the crowd." We read these words on the feast of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ.

In the Council of Trent (1545) it was stated: "The Catholic Church teaches that in the Eucharist, the Body and Blood of the God-man are really, truly, substantially, and abidingly present together with his soul and divinity by reason of the Transubstantiation of the bread and wine into the Body and Blood of Christ. This takes place in the unbloody sacrifice of the Mass." The Eucharist, which is the source and summit of our faith, is not a symbol of the Body and Blood of Jesus. It IS Jesus. According to website The Real Presence, "The Roman Catholic Church, that is, the Latin Rite Catholic Church, and other Catholic Churches in communion with Rome believe that the Eucharist is the Real Presence of Jesus Christ, body, blood, soul and divinity. The Orthodox Churches and most other Churches of the East do so as well. Anglican (Episcopalian) and other Protestant denominations have interpreted Christ's presence at the celebration of the Lord's Supper or Eucharist to be either only spiritual, or symbolic, or non-existent." This belief makes us unique.

Through the sacrifice of the Mass, Jesus becomes present, offering himself to the Father through the priest. When we receive the Eucharist, we become united with Christ. St. John Chrysostom says: "What is the Bread actually? The Body of Christ. What do communicants become? The Body of Christ. Just as the bread comes from many grains, which remain themselves and are not distinguished from one another because they are united, so we are united with Christ."

Fr. Anthony Kdavid said in a homily about this feast, "Just as numerous grains of wheat are pounded together to make the host, and many grapes are crushed together to make the wine, so we become unified in this sacrifice. Our Lord chose these elements in order to show us that we ought to seek union with one another, to allow the Holy Spirit to transform us into Our Lord Jesus Christ and to work with Him in the process. Christ is the Head and we are the Body. Together we are one."

Then he tells this story about St. Philip Neri: He saw someone leaving church right after Communion and he sent servers with candles and bells to accompany the man. The guy stormed back into the church and confronted the priest. "What kind of joke is this?" he demanded. St. Philip Neri said, "It's no joke. The rules of the liturgy say the Blessed Sacrament should be treated with reverence. You left the Church immediately with no prayer of thanksgiving. You were carrying the Blessed Sacrament within you. So I asked the boys to accompany you to honor Him."

When we receive the Body and Blood of Jesus, we become one with Him. Fr. Kdavid adds, "We need to become Christ-bearers and -conveyers: By receiving Holy Communion we become Christ-bearers as Mary was, with the duty of conveying Christ to others at home and in the workplace, as love, mercy, forgiveness and humble and sacrificial service." Thanks be to God!

SAINT OF THE WEEK

St. Erasmus

Feastday: June 2

Erasmus was also known as Elmo. He was the bishop of Formiae, Campagna, Italy, and suffered martyrdom during Diocletian's persecution of the Christians. He once fled to Mount Lebanon during the persecution and lived a life of solitude there for some time, being fed by a raven. After the emperor discovered his whereabouts, he was tortured and thrown in prison. Legend claims that an angel released him and he departed for Illyricum, eventually suffering a martyr's death and was one of the Fourteen Holy Helpers. Legend records that when a blue light appears at mastheads before and after a storm, the seamen took it as a sign of Erasmus's protection. This was known as "St. Elmo's fire". The blue electrical discharges under certain atmospheric conditions have also been seen on the masks or riggings of ships. Erasmus is also invoked against stomach cramps and colic. This came about because at one time he had hot iron hooks stuck into his intestines by persecutors under Emperor Diocletian. These wounds he miraculously endured. His Feast day is June 2nd.

WHO CAN HELP?

Would you like to make a donation to pay for mileage and gas for Sr. Mary Irene, when she travels to our parish for Spiritual Direction? This month we split the cost with Holy Rosary so it only 55.13 for our half. Make check payable to: WV Institute for Spirituality. Any amount is welcome. Please contact the parish office to find out more.

BELL CONCERT CDs ON SALE NOW!

Half of the initial order of the St. Patrick Bell Ensemble's concert CDs has been sold. Get yours now! CDs are available by contacting Jim Weber at 304-269-4307 or by seeing John Collins or Marilyn Bean for your copy. The price of the CD is $12 per disc. The Year of Mercy Concert CD includes Fr. Steve's inspirational words about God's mercy as we mark a special opportunity for grace.

COMMIT TODAY!

In early June, NAWAS International Travel, has to release the hold they placed on airline seats. Please get your reservation form in this week.

Currently, we have 22 people signed up, not including church staff.

NAWAS has been planning Christian tours for 66 years. They have gained an international reputation for reliability.

Brochures are in the vestibule and church office! Please don't let this opportunity pass you by.

Those who went on the trip to Italy met people from their church and community that had never met before. We became friends with people we just met. There were some struggles but, all in all, it was a great trip. It was made great by the awesome people who went, not just by where we were and what we were doing!

By only taking the host you are participating fully. In the same way, if you only drink from the chalice you are participating fully. Jesus is always fully present in each form—both one and the other. Many times it is not possible to offer the chalice to a large congregation; yet there are also times when one cannot receive the host, especially in sickness, and consuming the Precious Blood is easier. In its teaching on the Eucharist, the Church invites us to receive both: "It is especially fitting to receive Christ in both forms during the celebration of the Eucharist. This allows the Eucharist to appear more perfectly as a banquet, a banquet that is a foretaste of the banquet that will be celebrated with Christ at the end of time when the Kingdom of God is established in its fullness (see Eucharisticum Mysterium, 32)." In John 6 Jesus invites us to both eat and drink, so it is good to do both if you are able. If you aren't able, or if the chalice isn't offered at your church, you still participate fully. Both forms are always present though, because the priest must always receive both.
