Luke 9:51-62

I don't have any trouble making decisions. At least, I thought I didn't.

Two weeks ago, I stood in the aisle at the Walmart, looking at kitchen trash cans. The old one lasted 20 years, and it was time. The colors, the styles, the sizes—it was overwhelming. After about 20 minutes, I settled on a white one.

My visiting friend noticed, and her opinion was that it was "too white" in comparison to the kitchen cabinets. Back to Walmart. Another 20 minutes, this time for a black one. I told Son #1 that I've bought cars in less time than it took to get that stupid $14 trash can. It better last two more decades, because I'm done.

Today, Jesus is on the road. Please notice the language Luke uses to describe the Jesus' attitude: "He resolutely determined to journey to Jerusalem." Jesus is on a death march. He's going to Jerusalem to die a miserable death. Luke makes it sound like Jesus has a choice, and, in reality, he does. Problem is, Jesus always wants to do God's will, so, yes, of course, he will go to Jerusalem.

The second choice in the Gospel is the how Jesus got to Jerusalem. The direct route is through Samaria. However, Samaria was enemy territory for "real" Jews. Anyone else would have gone clear out the way to avoid running into the nasty Samaritans. Jesus isn't "anyone else." He chooses to be unwelcome. Why? It isn't because he's in a hurry to die. He came to call all sinners, not just his neighbors.

The next choice Jesus has to make is whether to call down "fire from heaven to consume" the inhospitable Samaritans. James and John, brothers who are known as the Sons of Thunder because of their hot tempers, don't like the way they are being treated. Jesus declines their invitation, rebukes them, and continues on his journey. He wants to set people on fire, but not the way James and John have in mind.

Up next are three people who have their own choices to make. The first person offers to follow Jesus wherever he goes. Jesus responds that he is essentially homeless, so don't expect a four-star hotel.

Jesus meets the second and says, "Follow me," the same words he said to Peter, Andrew, and the rest of his crew. None of them made an excuse, but this guy says, "I have to bury my father." According to an account I read, the man's father wasn't dead yet. If he was, he would have been at home because Jews buried their dead on the same day of the death. Bad excuse.

The third guy has some farming to do. Jesus doesn't want to hear it. "You're not fit for the kingdom of God, if you keep having to look back."

What Jesus is saying is that when you choose to follow him, you'd better be aware of the commitment. He doesn't want lukewarm people.

Following Jesus is an easy decision to make. But that decision must constantly be reaffirmed. Just think about the last time you tried to pray for ten minutes straight. I bet your knees hurt, your mind wandered, and you were looking at the clock. That's my routine, anyway.

Let's not be like the three men with excuses today. Let's make the decision to follow Jesus. Completely.

ELECTRONIC GIVING?

WHAT'S THAT?

Electronic giving will enable every household or individual to make their church offering using electronic funds transfer or credit card. You may already be using online bill pay for your mortgage, car payment, or insurance premium through an automatic withdrawal from your checking or savings account. Many of you also have used your credit cards to purchase goods online through Amazon, Ebay, or a number of other sites.

We have teamed up with myEoffering to enable you to use the same process to give your offering electronically from your bank account, credit or debit cards.

There is no cost to you for this new giving option. If you are currently giving on a weekly basis, you will no longer need to write out 52 checks a year or prepare 52 envelopes. And when travel, illness or other circumstances prevent you from attending services, this program will allow your weekly offerings to continue uninterrupted.

You can begin participating in the electronic giving program immediately. Just visit our church website and look for the "Donate Now" button. Thank you for considering this giving opportunity.

LATIN MASS

Latin Mass is held at St. Patrick Church on the second Sunday of each month at 4pm. The next Latin Mass will be July 10. The celebrant is Fr. Timothy Grassi.

THANK YOU KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS!

The Knights of Columbus worked very hard on Saturday, June 18 cleaning the rectory and getting it ready for Fr. DeViese to move into. Due to his allergies, the carpeting had to be taken up and the duct work cleaned. To save money, we did not have the company doing that work to also the clean the house when they finished. That is when the Knights jumped in and got the job done in just a few hours.

There are a couple more things that need to happen before he can move in, but he is much closer than he was.

For the wives of the Knights who participated, don't let them tell you they don't know how to clean, they could have there own cleaning business!

What does the Church teach about angels?

Where does Church teaching on angels come from?

Where did we get their division into classes and the concept of the guardian angel?

The Catechism of the Catholic Church states that the existence of angels is "a truth of faith" known in both Scripture and Tradition (328). Here is an ancient definition: An angel is a mighty, concentrated personality standing in God's presence, ready to do his bidding instantly.

Jesus famously speaks of what we take to be the guardian angels of children. He says the angels of these children always look on the face of God (see Matthew 18:10). Angels took care of Jesus (see Matthew 4:2).

The Church understands angels to be spirits. Angel means "messenger," and angels are servants of God.

Different classes of angels are mentioned in the Bible (for example, Ephesians 1:21 and 3:10, Colossians 1:16, Revelation 11:16). We speak of Michael, Raphael, and Gabriel as archangels, because the jobs God gave them to do were so important.

The Church holds that Satan is a fallen angel (CCC 391). Jesus tells us Satan "was a murderer from the beginning and does not stand in truth, because there is no truth in him" (John 8:44).
