UpFront with Mary Hendricks

Luke 10:25-37

Wanna know how to get to heaven? It's simple. Jesus gives us the formula today: Love God with all ya got, and love your neighbor. Ta da! You're in!!

"Ah," the lawyer asks him, "But who is my neighbor?" Lawyers have a tendency to complicate things. Son #1 should have been a lawyer. I'll make a succinct statement, and he'll counter with a thousand questions and two thousand arguments. Conversations with him take three to four hours. Which I absolutely love, because good conversation is my lifeblood. Bring it, baby.

And Jesus brings it in a roundabout way. He knows that he can't just give his scholarly friend the true answer: "Everyone." He lets him figure it out himself.

Aside from the half-dead guy in the ditch, there are three main characters in the story of the Good Samaritan, one of the most famous passages in the entire Bible: the priest, the Levite, and the Samaritan.

First, the priest. We can figure he probably is going down the road on a donkey, on the way to or from the temple. When he sees the injured man, he crosses to the opposite side of the road. Because the injured guy was stripped and unconscious, he is anonymous. His clothing and his dialect would have told where he was from. Because neither is apparent, the priest can't tell whether he is a Jew or not. If he isn't a Jew, the priest could be "unclean" by coming closer than two yards from him. If the priest is unclean, he can't offer sacrifice in the temple, which means no salary or food for his family. He would have to stand with the other unclean people outside the temple and start the lengthy and expensive cleansing ritual. It involved finding, buying, and burning a red heifer to ashes. That took a week to do, which is probably why he went to the other side of the road.

Next, the Levite. Levites assisted priests in the temple, and this one probably had oil and wine with him. He may have seen the priest walk by and assumed he should do the same. Or he may have feared for his safety. The man in the ditch could have been a decoy for robbers hiding in the bushes. He, too, gets as far away as possible.

Now, the Samaritan. Hated by Jews and vice versa, the Samaritans were bound by the same rules as the Jews. He risked being unclean, and the injured man sure wasn't from his neighborhood. He had oil and wine, same as the Levite, but he used his to soothe the man's wounds. He, like the priest, had a donkey, and he used his to carry the man to safety. The two silver coins he left to the innkeeper were enough to give the stranger lodging for two months. This generosity is way above the norm for any era.

Don't you wonder what the lawyer thought when he found out that his neighbor is a despicable Samaritan? And if you look further, his other neighbors are a battered, bruised, anonymous guy in a ditch, a self-involved priest, and an uncertain Levite. Quite a crew.

If we look closely, we will find that same crew around us. Will we recognize our neighbors?

LATIN MASS

A Latin Mass (Extraordinary Form of the Roman Rite) will be celebrated at St. Patrick Church on Sunday, July 10, 4:00pm. Our celebrant will be Fr. Timothy Grassi of St Thomas Aquinas Parish in Thomas, WV.

This is a High (Sung) Mass with Choir. Fr Grassi will also hear confessions beginning at 3:15pm.

We have Latin - English missals and printed Propers for the day's Mass available for use by all who attend and new people are always welcome. Twenty-four attend the Latin Mass held in June.

WHICH DOOR IS UNLOCKED AND WHEN?

The doors on both sides of the church (handicap wrap and rectory) are unlocked during the day so people can stop in and pray. If you are in the church there is no need for you to lock the doors when you leave, Fr. DeViese will take care of it. If he is away, the maintenance man, Greg Hitt will take care of unlocking and locking the doors.

VISITING MISSIONARY JULY 9 & 10 COLLECTION FOR MISSIONARY - JULY 16 & 17

We welcome Fr. Varghese Muzhuthth V.C., a Vincentian Missionary Priest from India, to our parish this weekend to participate in our Annual Missionary Cooperation Plan. He is preaching at all the Masses this weekend and will make an appeal on behalf of the Vincentian Missions. The Vincentian Missionaries, all natives of India, need our help to carry out their many missionary, educational and charitable activities in their missions. They need our special financial support for the training of young men studying for priesthood. There will be special collection next weekend to help the Missionary work of the Vincentian Missionaries. We urge you to be very generous in your mission offering since these Missionaries need our help. Please keep Fr. Varghese and all the Vincentian Missionaries and seminarians in your prayers. Thank you very much for your prayers and generous financial support.

Can a non-Catholic be a cantor at Mass?

Our parish hired a non- Christian to be the cantor at both Sunday Masses. I'm uncomfortable hearing her sing, and a priest told me that only a Catholic is allowed to sing the psalms. What do you make of this?

The reform of the liturgy following Vatican II emphasized the importance of

In accordance with C. 827, permission to publish has been granted on November 30, 2015, by the Most Reverend Edward M. Rice, Auxiliary Bishop, Archdiocese of St. Louis. Catholicism to pastors, are extraordinary ministers of the Eucharist, and cantors typically support the clergy in Sunday liturgies, and lay catechists have instructed and formed both children and adults for decades. When a person exercises a ministry, he or she is not simply completing a function but truly sharing in the priesthood of Christ in a special way. Thus, extraordinary ministers must believe (and behave as though) they are distributing the Body and Blood of Christ, not just bread and wine. Lectors must believe they are reading the word of God, not just good advice or an old storybook. And cantors should be in harmony with the hymns they are singing. This does not mean a parish can't hire a non-Catholic; liturgical law doesn't limit most ministries to Catholics. Nonetheless, to sing of God's love, your cantor needs to do more than hit the correct notes and appeal to our sense of musical aesthetics. If she believes what she sings, I think she's OK in her position; if not, she is simply performing, and the ministry of cantor is not the place to do that.
