Luke 15:1-22

When the kids were little, we played a game in the car called "Opposites." I'd call out, "Dark," and they'd answer, "Light!" Loud...quiet. Cold...hot. First...last. You get the idea. But the best opposite I could have thrown out was: "Son #1," because the correct answer would be "Son #2."

Night and day, those two. One is a clothes horse; the other would wear the same tee-shirt until it was rags. One refers to the other as a "metrosexual," while the other calls his brother "Grizzly Adams." One can't wait to see the NASCAR races while the other races to Three Rivers Stadium to see the Steelers play. Outdoors vs. indoors. Star gazer vs. lady watcher. British sports car vs. Jeep with a quarter of a million miles on the odometer. Yep, night and day, those two.

Do we see that same dynamic in today's Gospel when Jesus tells the story of two brothers—the Prodigal Son and the Dutiful Son? Are they opposites? Let's examine them.

The younger son wants his inheritance which he promptly squanders on wild women and song. He discovers, after he is broke, that he's not doing much better than his father's servants. So, he goes back home to declare his sinfulness, telling his dad, "I no longer deserve to be called your son." He receives a hero's welcome, complete with a robe, ring, and rousing party.

The Dutiful Son works throughout all this nonsense. He doesn't ask for his inheritance. He never asks for goat feast, let alone a fatted calf party. He's all about being the good guy in this sibling rivalry scenario. Well, except when he refuses to attend the party or forgive his brother for his poor choices.

About the only thing I see opposite with these two is that one likes to work while the other one doesn't. Other than that, they are pretty much alike.

Both are disrespectful to their father. To the extreme! By asking for his inheritance, the younger son essentially was saying to his father, "I wish you were dead." By not attending his brother's party, the older son was saying, "I will dishonor you, Father, in front of all your friends."

Both are selfish. Both are rebellious. Both are greedy. I always wonder how such a loving father ended up with two rotten kids. Eh. It was probably the mother's fault. It's always the mother's fault.

Just before Jesus told this parable, he overheard the Pharisees and scribes complaining: "This man welcomes sinners and eats with them." Guess who they are in this Prodigal Son story. Yep. They all are the Dutiful Son. They are obedient, but their hearts are bitter. They put on a good show, but their minds are closed. Jesus welcomes the tax collectors and sinners (representing the younger, errant son), while the Pharisees and scribes won't come near. They are too busy judging.

A sinner who comes home should be welcomed. No judgment. No righteousness. No personal opinion. Just joy. Jesus proves that to us over and over again in the Gospel.

Besides, any one of us could be the younger brother. Or, the older brother, for that matter. Besides, the ones we consider most unworthy of this kind of mercy are most like us.

Let's pray that we become merciful, like the father in this story, and like the Father of us all.

ST. BERNARD CHURCH HOMECOMING MASS

Sunday, Sept. 11
2pm

A covered dish picnic will immediately follow the Mass. Meat, drinks, and paper and plasticware will be provided.

LATIN MASS

A Latin Mass (Extraordinary Form of the Roman Rite) will be celebrated at St. Patrick Church, 210 Center Ave, Weston, WV, on Sunday, September 11, at 4:00p.m. We have Latin - English missals and printed Propers for the day's Mass available for use by all who attend. New people are always welcome.

GIFTS FROM THE HOLY LAND

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

Sept. 16 and 17 we will have a display of beautiful handmade olivewood carvings from the Holy Land. The Christians of the Holy Land have been suffering and continue to live in difficult economical situations. Olivewood carvings are part of a tradition handed down from one generation to another; Christian families have worked over 2000 years to protect the holy sites in Bethlehem, Jerusalem, Nazareth, and to spread the word of Jesus. For about the past 1000 years they used carvings to keep the Bible alive in dimensions. Our mission is to support our fellow Christians in the Holy Land by selling some of their olive wood carvings which are one major source for their income. Proceeds from the sale will benefit Christian families in Bethlehem/Holy Land. Last century, the Christians were about 37% but today they are only 5%.

By your support through the purchasing of these carvings, 200 families will be helped to remain in the Holy Land. Supporting these families is important also for the peace in the Middle East. Please stop by our tables and get your gifts directly from the little town of Bethlehem.

Thank you all and God bless.

Dear Padre

SEPTEMBER 11, 2016

Is it possible to replace a godfather?
Since my daughter's baptism, my brother-in-law has divorced his wife and abandoned his children. I no longer want to associate with him.

I can understand your feelings toward your brother-in-law, given his behavior toward his own family. However, at the time of your daughter's baptism, he was accepted as her godfather and his name was placed in the official baptismal register. I don't see how that official document could be changed.

Although this loss may seem significant, it's important to remember that your daughter—and you—are not alone. She seems to have two parents, a godmother, a pastor and parish, and other adults and mentors who will walk with her and assist you as she grows in faith: "For the grace of Baptism to unfold, the parents' help is important. So too is the role of the godfather and godmother....The whole ecclesial community bears some responsibility for the development and safeguarding of the grace given at Baptism" (CCC 1255).

What I have recommended in similar situations is that you now choose and ask a person whom you know and trust to be your daughter's "acting" godfather." As your daughter gets older you could explain to her that this person really cares about her and will be like a godfather to her. I think this might be a good family solution.

BEING MORTAL

You are invited to a free screening and discussion of the PBS Frontline documentary Being Mortal. Based on the best-selling book by Dr. Atul Gawande, this film explores the hopes of patients and families facing terminal illness and their relationships with the doctors, nurses, and family members who care for them.

Screenings will be held at 5:30 p.m., on Tuesday, Oct 4, in the library of St. Joseph's Hospital in Buckhannon, (304) 473-2057 and at 5:30 p.m., in classrooms 1 and 2 of United Hospital Center in Clarksburg, (681) 342-3261.

Dinner is included. Please call the numbers above to reserve your spot.

SECOND ANNUAL HEALTHY BODIES HEALTHY SPIRITS CONFERENCE

Oct. 15 at WV Wesleyan College
Registration is $30 and open now.

Joining hands across denominations to help knock West Virginia off the top of the worst health lists!

BACKPACK DONATIONS NEEDED

School is in session, and food is needed to feed hungry kids in our county! Send in the items listed for the weekend backpack program. All items must be individually wrapped.

Crackers, Pasta, Pudding, gelatin, Breakfast bars, Cereal, Oatmeal, Applesauce (canned fruits), Juice, and anything that would make a healthy meal or snack for a hungry child. These items are distributed anonymously to 44 kids at Robert Bland Middle School.

ELECTRONIC GIVING? WHAT'S THAT?

Electronic giving will enable every household or individual to make their church offering using electronic funds transfer or credit card. You may already be using online bill pay for your mortgage, car payment, or insurance premium through an automatic withdrawal from your checking or savings account. Many of you also have used your credit cards to purchase goods online through Amazon, eBay, or a number of other sites.

We have teamed up with myEoffering to enable you to use the same process to give your offering electronically from your bank account, credit or debit cards.

There is no cost to you for this new giving option. If you are currently giving on a weekly basis, you will no longer need to write out 52 checks a year or prepare 52 envelopes. And when travel, illness or other circumstances prevent you from attending services, this program will allow your weekly offerings to continue uninterrupted.

You can begin participating in the electronic giving program immediately. Just visit our church website and look for the "Donate Now" button. Thank you for considering this giving opportunity.

LEAVE A LEGACY...

Your Church has been there for you throughout your lifetime; you can be there for your Church's future.

Leaving a bequest in your will to the Church, your Parish, or School allows you to leave your legacy to an institution that means so much to you and thousands of others.

Insurance or other bequests permit you to make a gift without loss of comfort or security during your lifetime, while allowing you to take advantage of estate tax savings. Please see your tax advisor.

St. Patrick Church Estate Planning

St. Patrick Church is blessed to have been the beneficiary of trusts and estates over the years. When you plan the responsible and meaningful use and distribution of your resources, your parish and its programs would be grateful to be included in your plans. If you are remembering St. Patrick Church in your Will, we suggest the following language:

I give $_____ to the Most Reverend Michael J. Bransfield, Bishop of the Roman Catholic Diocese of Wheeling-Charleston and his successors in office, for the benefit of St. Patrick Church in Weston, West Virginia.

St. Patrick School Charitable Foundation

As another legacy to the future of the Church in Weston, St. Patrick School has established an endowment fund: The St. Patrick School Charitable Foundation.

The St. Patrick School Charitable Foundation insures the future of St. Patrick School and is held by Edward Jones Investments. Only the interest is used to support the school; the principal remains untouched. Cash, stock, or bequests are welcome at any time.

I give $_____ to the St. Patrick School Charitable Foundation.
