Luke 19:1-10

How do you feel about the IRS? According to the Pew Research Center, 48-percent of Americans do not have a favorable view of the Internal (Infernal?) Revenue Service.

The IRS and I are tight. They just love me. They send me letters all the time, some of which I don't open for weeks, just so I can savor the moment. I don't owe them enough money for them to buy my soul, but it's enough to purchase a loaded Cadillac SUV. Yeah. We're pretty tight, me and the IRS.

So, I'm one of the 48-percent. I don't hate the IRS, but my view isn't favorable. This helps me understand how the people of Jericho viewed Zacchaeus, the short guy with a big tax stick from today's Gospel.

The townspeople hated him, calling him a "sinner." He must have earned that reputation by cheating his countrymen when it came to collecting taxes for the occupying Roman government.

I have this theory about Zacchaeus. By "theory," I mean that I'm making this up. I think he had Short Man Syndrome. A person with this syndrome has a feeling of inadequacy which can come from a lack of height, real or imagined. You may have heard it called "Napoleon Complex." I think being a tax collector gave Zacchaeus confidence because his work status compensated for being vertically challenged. Maybe he was getting back at his fellow citizens because they were mean to him.

Whatever the case, even Jesus knew who he was while Zacchaeus was up in the sycamore tree. You've seen sycamore trees over in the old State Hospital lawn. They're huge! They grow up to 100 feet. But Jesus spotted him and called him down. "Hey, Zacchaeus! I must stay at your house today!"

Another theory. Zacchaeus never expected that this important man, this prophet and healer, would ever want to meet him. He scrambles down quickly to meet the Savior. He's so excited! The Gospel says, "(Zacchaeus) received him with joy."

When Jesus greets other sinners, he says things like, "You are forgiven," or "Sin no more." He doesn't have to do that for Zacchaeus who immediately owns up to his shortcomings (excuse the pun).

"I'm going to give half of my possessions to the poor," he tells Jesus. "If I have cheated anyone, I'll quadruple the repayment." Wow. Zacchaeus just guaranteed that he was bankrupting himself. He put himself out of business. And why was he repaying four times what he owed? Because that was the Jewish law. No matter what he had been or done in the past, Zacchaeus still knew the law.

And Jesus grants him salvation. He calls Zacchaeus a descendant of the patriarch Abraham, no less than any other man in Jericho, because of his instant and complete conversion.

What this story tells us is that no one is beyond redemption. No one is beyond the possibility of conversion. There is no past deed, no abhorrent behavior, no seedy way of life that cannot be turned around.

There is only one requirement: repentance. Sorrow for the sin. Zacchaeus

MASS PARKING FAQ

1. On Holy Days of Obligation, where should I park?

Parking is limited at the noon Mass.

NO ONE can park in the lot next to school or in the first five spaces on the left in the parking lot next to the parish office. These parking spots are rented through the week. Even if a spot is open, don't park in it. If you do, you may very well get blocked in by the person renting the spot.

2. Can I park behind cars already parked?

Yes and No.

If it is weekend Mass, you may park behind cars already parked in either lot, if you can not find anywhere else to park. If you do this in the lot next to the parish office, and something is going on at West Hall or somewhere else close by, you may be blocking someone in, and they may interrupt Mass to be let out. If you do park in the middle, please don't hang around after Mass. You may be blocking someone in who needs to go to work or is on a tight schedule and they need to leave as soon as Mass is over.

If it is a noon Mass on a Holy Day, please do not park behind any car in a rented space. Also keep in mind that if you park in the middle, you may block someone who is having lunch at Second and Center.

THANKSGIVING DINNER

St. Patrick Church and School will host a Community Thanksgiving lunch in St. Patrick School cafeteria Thursday, November 24 @ 12:30. Dear Padre

OCTOBER 30, 2016

Do I need to stay until the very end of Mass? The short concluding rites feel anticlimactic after Communion.

The Mass is intended to contain “a conscious, active, and full participation of the faithful, ... fervent with faith, hope and charity” (General Instruction of the Roman Missal, 18). At Mass, the faithful form one body, a holy people, to “give thanks to God and offer the unblemished sacrificial Victim not only by means of the hands of the Priest but also together” (GIRM 95). This is achieved through “their deep religious sense and their charity toward brothers and sisters who participate with them” (GIRM 95). Thus, reverence for God at Mass includes a proper respect for the people worshipping with you. Remaining until the recessional concludes—as well as arriving on time—is a sign of this reverence. It respects not only God and your neighbors in the pew but also the ministers (ordained or lay), ushers, and everyone present.

After the faithful partake in the Eucharist, there is a communal period of silence to allow for personal prayer. Also, a psalm, canticle of praise, or hymn may be offered and sung (GIRM 88, 164). “There is no prayer more agreeable to God, or more profitable to the soul, than that which is made during the thanksgiving after Communion,” wrote St. Alphonsus in The Holy Eucharist. While an early departure or late arrival at Mass may be, at times, unavoidable, it is preferable to celebrate Mass in its entirety, in heart, mind, soul...and body!

"Right to Choose" - Choose What?

Abortion advocates often say, "It's a woman's right to choose." However, once a woman is pregnant, she already has a child; the choice is what to do with him or her. Although the word "choice" sounds so positive and harmless, the actual choice is whether to have a live child or a dead child

Abortion advocates also argue that, "You cannot legislate morality." Interestingly, this is exactly the same argument that the civil rights' movement faced. The response of Martin Luther King Jr. was: "We hear the familiar cry that morals cannot be legislated. This may be true, but behavior can be regulated. The law may not be able to make a man love me, but it can keep him from lynching me".

Similarly, pro-life advocates are trying to regulate behavior, not legislate morality. We cannot force some people to love all children, but we can and should use our influence to stop abortionists destroying innocent babies.
