Commentary for the Readings in the Extraordinary Form: Easter Sun- arose" (Offertory)? day

"You are looking for Jesus of Nazareth, Who was crucified. He has risen, He is not here. . . Go, tell His disciples. . . that He goes before you" (Gospel).

Yes; we, too, searchers after Christ, now confess we have found Him. The task before us is to "tell" others of His victory, that all may be "of one mind and heart" (Postcommunion).

Why? Because if Christmas is the loveliest Feast as we behold God born of Mary unto man's life, certainly Easter is the greatest as we behold Jesus born of a tomb so that man may rise unto God's Life.

Our faith in His Divinity is confirmed because He "overcame death;" our hope is enlivened because He has "opened unto us the Gate of Eternity" (Prayer). Is it any wonder that the "earth trembled. . .when God

How are we to prepare for our Easter Communion? A Resurrection Day effort to "purge out the old" life for the "new!" How could we be nourished by the "sincerity and truth" of Divine Bread if it were spoiled by the "leaven" of an insincere will, or an untrue mind (Epistle)?

Excerpted from My Sunday Missal, Confraternity of the Precious Blood.

to our celebration of the Sacred Triduum and Easter Sunday this year. The cantors, servers, musicians, church decorators, those who have donated flowers, and many others have worked very hard to make this a beautiful experience of the Faith, and they are owed a tremendous debt of gratitude for their sacrifice of time, the sharing of their talents, and their dedication.

Very special thanks to everyone who has contributed | The Knights of Columbus would like to thank all those who gave so generously to the St. Joseph's Table & 40 Cans for Lent Food Drive. Our parish managed to collect over 2,800 pounds of food, which has been donated to Our Neighbor Food Pantry for distribution over the Easter holiday. What a tremendous outpouring of almsgiving and generosity this was from our parishioners—a beautiful testament to the Faith, and of love for the least among us. May God bless in a special way all who donated and all who will receive from their gen-
