Manifesting our Faith at Home

As the Christmas Season draws to a close, Holy Mother Church celebrates the great Feast of the Epiphany of the Lord. “Epiphany” literally means a manifestation or a showing forth. As the original Christmas, this was the day more highly regarded and celebrated because, while the birth of Christ brings great joy, on Epiphany he was made known to the world, represented by the Magi. Traditionally this is the day on which gifts are given, in imitation of the gifts given to the Child Jesus by the Magi. In addition to this, the Church continues one of her most ancient traditions, that of the blessing of homes. Most of us have probably had our homes blessed at one time or another. But Epiphany gives the opportunity for a unique and special blessing particular to the day. Along with the prayer of blessing, which can be done by a priest or by the head of the household, the door lentil is “chalked”—marked in blessed chalk with a sign of the Epiphany: the year along with the letters C, M, and B. The acronym CMB stands for both a Latin prayer, Christus Mansionem Benedicat (May Christ Bless this House) as well as the traditional names of the Magi—Caspar, Melchior, and Balthasar.

This year we are presented with another opportunity to “chalk the doors,” as the expression goes. This outward sign of our celebration of Epiphany is a visible sign to all who enter our homes that they are entering the home of faithful it be known to the all the world. True, the chalk mark will fade with time. But as it does we permit what the sign represents—our Faith—to sink more deeply into our hearts and mind, that it may be manifested more fully in our thoughts and actions.

Below is a very brief Rite of Blessing for Epiphany, and I encourage all our families at some point this week to take a moment to gather as a household, to offer this prayer, and to “chalk the doors” in celebration of Our Lord’s Epiphany.

Epiphany Blessing

Gathering near the main entrance to the home, the head of the household leads the family in this short prayer service.

V.\ In the name of the Father X and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit.

R.\ Amen.

V.\ May peace dwell in this house.

R.\ And in all who live here.

V.\ O God, by the guidance of a star you revealed your Only Begotten Son to the nations. Grant that we who know you by Faith in this life may come to live in your presence in the next.

R.\ Amen.

V.\ Let us pray. Bless this home, Almighty God, that it may be a dwelling of health, chastity, self-conquest, humility, goodness, mildness, obedience to the Commandments, and thanksgiving to God the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. May this blessing remain upon this home, and upon all who live here, throughout this year. Through Christ our Lord.

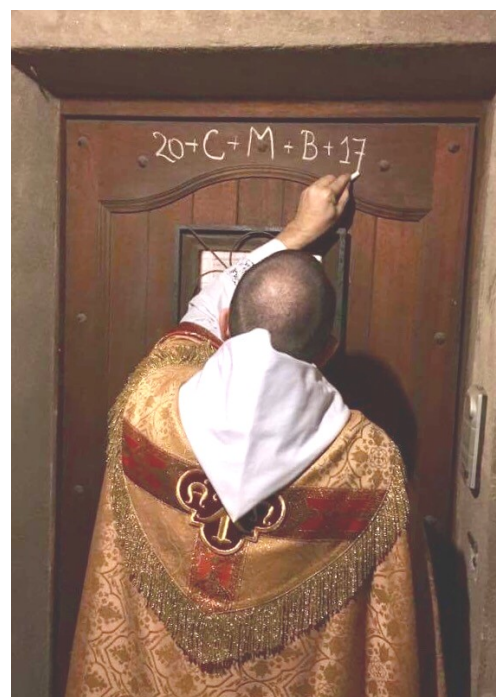

R.\ Amen.

The head of the household then takes the blessed chalk and writes above the main door of the house, on the exterior, the following inscription:

The March For Life

THE 45th ANNUAL MARCH FOR LIFE in Washington, D.C. commemorates the 1973 Supreme Court legalization of abortion, which has resulted in the deaths of over 60 million innocent, unborn children. Please join the March to help us rededicate ourselves to stopping this culture of death. A bus, sponsored by the Monongalia Chapter of West Virginians for Life, will leave on Friday, January 19, 2018, from the Sears parking lot at the Morgantown Mall at 4:30 a.m. to return there on the same day around 11:00 p.m. The bus will arrive in Washington in time for the Congressional Delegation meeting at 10:00 a.m. in 2168 Rayburn House Office Building. The cost is $15/person or $30/family of 3 or more. Call 304-282-5756 for reservations, which are required.

Commentary for the Readings in the Extraordinary Form: Feast of the Holy Family

"Jesus came to Nazareth, and was subject to them" (Gospel).

"Subject to them" is the awe-inspiring phrase which sums up His Life. Humbly did He abide by the decrees of human law! Obedience to "My Father's business" must come first, as a guide to all other business, if heaven is to find our family unbroken (Prayer).

If Jesus withdraws from us as a test of our love or if we lose Him by the commission of sin, we will not regain the joy of His Presence amid the distractions of "relatives and acquaintances;" but we will find Him "in the temple" at Confession and Communion.

So-called "modern" ideas and practices are evicting Christ from the home. As as antidote, at the family meal let us read aloud from the New Testament. "Let the word of Christ dwell" in your home (Epistle). Then will your family, even though living in "obscurity" as did the Holy Family, advance "in wisdom and. . . grace before God and men" (Gospel).

— Excerpted from My Sunday Missal, Confraternity of the Precious Blood

We've begun the Vocation Chalice Program at St. Patrick's!

This program has existed for a number of years around the country, but has come back to St. Patrick's. Years ago, Sr. Eileen had begun the program of praying with a traveling chalice. Now our Council of the Knights of Columbus has teamed together with our parish to bring the program back, in order to encourage families to pray together for an increase of vocations to the priesthood and religious life. The program will help to cultivate an increased awareness of God's plan for our lives and to help cultivate a positive environment to foster future vocations within our parish and Diocese.

Each week parishioners that have signed up to participate will receive the chalice at the end of Mass, along with prayer booklets and a prayer journal. The family will take the chalice, as a symbol of the priesthood and the continuity of the action of the Mass in our daily lives, to their home and display it in a prominent place for all to see throughout the week. Each day of the week, the family will gather together to pray for vocations using the booklets as their guide. During this time, parents can explain and prompt young children and teenagers to consider how God is calling them into a deeper relationship with Him.

The Knights of Columbus and Fr. DeViese are deeply committed to increasing awareness of how critical is it that more young people begin to turn their hearts away from the distractions of the world and to follow God in a more radical way. By God's grace, we pray that He will raise up from among the youth of our parish a new generation of priests and consecrated religious that will seek to spread the Gospel of Jesus Christ in our Diocese and throughout the world!

Families may inquire about signing up for a week with Jim Gildein:
