The Lewis County Catholic Times

A Weekly Bulletin for Saint Patrick Catholic Church, Weston, West Virginia
Established 1848

The Gospel is from St. John 1:35-42 and gives an account of the vocation of the first four Apostles who followed Jesus. It was a momentous event in the history of salvation. It was the beginning of a stream of vocations that would grow and spread down through the ages until the end of the world. It was momentous, firstly, in that Christ, who had come to open heaven for all men and who could find means of bringing them all to that eternal home without help from any man, decided instead to let men co-operate with him in this divine task. He decreed to set up a kingdom in this world—his Church—which would be run by mere mortals for their fellow-mortals, but which would be under his protection and assisted by his divine aid until the end of time. Christ chose this very human way, in order to make his Church more acceptable to our limited, human understanding and more approachable for sinful, human nature.

Christ, as God, could deal directly with every human being on earth. He could teach the infallible truth; he could pardon sins; he could give all the graces needed to travel successfully to heaven. There would then be no need for a Church with its teaching magisterium, no need for the sacrament of Baptism, or of Penance, nor of the Holy Eucharist itself or of any other such aids. Christ could do all that his Church does for the salvation of mankind, and more successfully, of course, but yet he chose the way which divine wisdom saw was best.

We mortals know that God can speak directly to our hearts, and actually has done so to many men in the past. We know that he can do directly all that is done by his Church, to whom he gave the power, with its teaching magisterium and sacraments. If he were to act in this way we should be open to continuous doubts about the source of our inspirations and the objectivity of the graces we thought we were receiving. It was to remove such doubts, and the possibility of self-deception that Christ left to us the external visible kingdom to which he gave all the powers necessary for men's salvation. It was for the security and peace of men's consciences that he set up a visible Church founded on the Apostles, men like ourselves, but transformed by his assisting grace.

Another momentous fact in Christ's choice of the Apostles on whom he was to build his Church, is that he "chose the lowly and the humble to confound the wise." The first four Apostles, as well as the other eight, were simple, lowly fishermen from Galilee. They may possibly have been able to read and write a little, but they were certainly not men of education or any social standing in their communities. He could have converted and chosen some of the more highly educated scribes of Jerusalem, or some of the Roman centurions then in Palestine, or some of the many philosophers in Greece, or even Roman senators whose influence as Christian teachers would carry such weight with the educated elite of the empire. But he did not. The instrument he chose to carry his message to all men was not dependent on human ingenuity or on the educational or social standing of his witnesses. Rather it was to stand on the power of God, of which it was the expression and proof.

We can see clearly the divine wisdom governing Christ's choice of Apostles! Had his message of salvation been spread and promulgated by men of learning and social standing, the cry would soon go up on all sides: "This religion is the invention of philosophers; it is a clever plan of the upper classes to keep the poor and humble

Commentary for the Readings in the Extraordinary Form: Second Sunday after Epiphany

"A wedding took place . . . (Mary) said to Jesus, 'They have no wine.' . . . Jesus said to (the attendants), 'Fill the jars with water . . . Draw out now' . . . When the chief steward had tasted the water . . . become wine . . . (he said to the bridegroom), 'Thou hast kept the good wine until now'" (Gospel).

"A lesson to our young married couples of today! Believe and trust in Him to keep your family if you keep His Word! A spiritual change also took place, since "His disciples believed in Him" (Gospel).

Consider the daily miracle of God's "grace that has been given us" (Epistle), to change from evil to good in both single and married life. Jesus "kept the good wine" of Divine Life for us (symbolized by Chalice at left in the picture). We must "fill the jars . . . (of our good will) to the brim" (Gospel).

Let us recognize the "great things" (Offertory) done for our soul through Mary's prayers to Jesus. Like the disciples, let us "believe" and "do whatever He tells" us (Gospel).

Pastoral Notes
& Ramblings

It goes without saying that there are some really nasty bugs going around town these days. Every morning I look over the students at daily Mass, and it's shocking to see how the numbers ebb and flow, as more and more of them get the "disease du jour". None of us is completely immune to it. And the cold/snowy weekends have not been helpful in the realm of attendance either. In an effort to help stifle the spread of disease in our parish community, especially in light of the many older parishioners who are particularly susceptible to illness, we all need to be more mindful of what we can do as individuals.

Please make a habit of washing your hands, and avoid touching your face as much as possible. If you are sick, or if you have been tending to sick people, be aware that you could be carrying an illness that could be transmitted to others. Be mindful (and this is a sound liturgical note anyway) that the Sign of Peace is not an opportunity to greet our neighbors, socialize, catch up, etc. The GIRM specifies that a sign of peace should be given in "a sober manner" to those "immediately" beside us. It is a symbolic gesture, not a free-for-all. As we consider the public health risks associated with physical touch, reining in the manner in which we give the Sign of Peace can be helpful in preventing the transmission of disease by limiting physical contact. If you are sick or have been attending to sick people, again be mindful of this and give a bow of the head or other indication of the Peace rather than shaking hands.

Finally, in an effort to curtail the spread of illness through the common chalices on the weekends, the practice of distributing Holy Communion under the species of wine will be suspended for the remainder of cold & flu season. Please note that this is not a permanent change, but a precaution to help curtail the spread of illness among our parishioners. It is not a decision I relish or have made without careful consideration.

Pray With Us

Please enter the church quietly and reverently. This is a time for prayer and reflection. Pray the rosary with your parish family. Be present in both mind and body.

workers in subjection." But it was the poor and working classes who spread Christ's message, and who suffered imprisonment and death itself at the hands of the educated and upper classes for so doing.

Today, let us thank our blessed Lord who provided so humanly—and yet so divinely for our eternal welfare. In the Church, which he founded on the lowly but solid foundation of simple fishermen of Galilee, he erected an institution against which the gates of hell, the power of all the enemies of our salvation, cannot prevail, for his divine guidance and help will be with it forever. It has had enemies and opposition from the beginning; they may be more numerous and more destructive than ever today. But the promise of Christ still holds good, his word cannot fail. Therefore, neither the opposition of materialistic enemies from without, nor the even more insidious attacks from faint-hearted and worldly-minded members from within, can affect the safety and permanence of the building which Christ built on the Rock. "If God is with us," it matters not "who is against us."

A Note From Sister Eileen Marie

Sister Eileen Marie would like to thank her St. Patrick Church family for their continued remembrance of her on her birthday and during Christmas. She is unable to write Thank You cards for everyone, but wanted us to know that we are in her prayers and she dearly misses her St. Patrick family.

Ash Wednesday is February 14!

How is it possible that we are half way through January? We breezed through the Advent and Christmas seasons and have settled comfortably into Ordinary Time. While this is just a short stay, it brings with it the reminder that Lent will begin soon. February 14 to be exact. Next weekend we will begin collecting all your old palms. Then, closed to Ash Wednesday, Fr. DeViese will burn the palms to make the ashes he will use on Ash Wednesday.

We will place a collection box to place your palms in. You don't have to put them in rubber bands or package them, just place them in the box.

Since we are talking about Ash Wednesday and Lent I will share some dates and times for you to put on you calendar. On Wed., Feb. 14, we will have the distribution of ashes at 8:15 and noon, Mass will be offered at our normal Wednesday time of 6pm.

Our advent penance service is scheduled for Monday, March 12 at 7pm.

It is also a good time to consider what you will do during the penitential season of Lent. Instead of giving something up, why not make a commitment to do something to deepen and expand your faith? Attend daily Mass and pray more often. Attend Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament, arrive early for weekend Mass and pray the rosary. The possibilities are endless!

The Vocation Chalice Program

This program has existed for a number of years around the country, but has come back to St. Patrick's. Years ago, Sr. Eileen had begun the program of praying with a traveling chalice. Now our Council of the Knights of Columbus has teamed together with our parish to bring the program back, in order to encourage families to pray together for an increase of vocations to the priesthood and religious life. The program will help to cultivate an increased awareness of God's plan for our lives and to help cultivate a positive environment to foster future vocations within our parish and Diocese.

Each week parishioners that have signed up to participate will receive the chalice at the end of Mass, along with prayer booklets and a prayer journal. The family will take the chalice, as a symbol of the priesthood and the continuity of the action of the Mass in our daily lives, to their home and display it in a prominent place for all to see throughout the week. Each day of the week, the family will gather together to pray for vocations using the booklets as their guide. During this time, parents can explain and prompt young children and teenagers to consider how God is calling them into a deeper relationship with Him.

The Knights of Columbus and Fr. DeViese are deeply committed to increasing awareness of how critical is it that more young people begin to turn their hearts away from the distractions of the world and to follow God in a more radical way. By God's grace, we pray that He will raise up from among the youth of our parish a new generation of priests and consecrated religious that will seek to spread the Gospel of Jesus Christ in our Diocese and throughout the world!

Families may inquire about signing up for a week with Jim Gildein: Jim.Gildein@kofc.org
