The Lewis County Catholic Times

A Weekly Bulletin for the parishes of Saint Patrick Catholic Church, Weston, Saint Boniface Catholic Church, Camden and Good Shepherd Mission, Glenville, West Virginia Established 1848

Seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time

he first reading is taken from the First Book of Samuel (1 SM 26:2, 7-9, 12-13, 22-23). The prophet Samuel, on the instruction of God, anointed David to be the second king of Israel. Saul the first king, because he had displeased God, was to lose his kingship. His throne was to pass not to his son, but to David, an unknown stranger from the village of Bethlehem. This reading describes the event that occurred during Saul's search for David.

The second reading is taken from St. (1 COR 15:45-49). In this Chapter of Paul's first letter to Corinthians the Apostle is speaking of the resurrection of all men from the dead.

(LK 6:27-38). It would at first sight appear that the demands that Christ but easy. Loving one's enemies is asking a lot. Blessing them and praying for them might be all right for St. Francis but expecting it of us seems to be going very far. Asking for a blow on the second cheek while the first is still twinging with try to take tack what was stolen from us looks very foolish. Yet it was Christ who made all these demands.

However, before we give up in despair, and decide that this type of Christianity is not for us, let us look a little more closely never do so. If we feel we have a lot of both get there. at the demands that are made. To love enemies only waiting for the chance to our enemy does not mean we must throw our arms about him every time we meet him (he would not let us anyway!). It means we must do all in our power to rid carefully and then look for the many our minds of any hatred of him, and try good points there are in our neighbour's Paul's First Epistle to the Corinthians to see the good that is in him. Not character. judging and condemning comes under "An eye for an eye, a tooth for a tooth, this heading. Human sinful beings that life for life" was the practice amongst the we are, our faculty for seeing in our Jews at the time of Christ and for neighbor the real man as he is before centuries before (Ex. 21 :23-25). Christ The Gospel is taken from St. Luke God, is very limited and very prone to sets up the "golden rule" of fraternal error. There are justly convicted robbers charity in place of this Law of Talon. and murderers in our jails, in whom God Every man should truly love his neighbor makes on our charity here are anything can see a lot of goodness even now, and for he is his brother. What is more, perhaps future citizens of heaven later on. Christ's mission on earth has made him a Not demanding back what was unjustly son of God and an heir to heaven. Our taken from us does not mean that we may chief interest in our neighbor must not have recourse to the legal or other therefore be a spiritual interest. If he ofmeans available to us for obtaining fends us, he offends God which is much compensation in such cases. What it does more serious. Our charity should help pain seems fit only for a martyr. Not to forbid is personal (generally forceful) him to seek God's forgiveness. That he restoration of our rights and property. should seek ours is of very minor Another consoling point to bear in importance in comparison with that.
