Fourth Sunday of Easter

The first reading is taken from Acts 13:14, 43-52 and the event described takes place in the middle of St. Paul's first missionary journey. Paul and Barnabas quote Isaiah 49:6 in support of their decision to preach to the Gentiles. The Isaiah text referred to Christ, ...but now Paul and Barnabas apply it to themselves because the Messiah is "light for the Gentiles" through the preaching of the Apostles, for they are conscious of speaking in Christ's name and on his authority. (The Navarre Bible - Acts of the Apostles)

The second reading is from the Book of Revelation 7:9, 14b-17. Last week we heard St. John describing his vision of the heavenly liturgy where he saw the Lamb of God in the Holy of Holies in His perpetual offering to God, the heavenly offering of Jesus Himself which we join at every Mass. Today we join St. John as he again views this heavenly liturgy and describes the Church in heaven (what we call the Church Triumphant) as it glorifies God.

The Gospel is from John 10:27-30. This Sunday is often called "Good Shepherd Sunday." Jesus intended the beautiful parable of the Good Shepherd with its many consoling truths and promises for men of every century, including the twentieth. We are all too prone to evaluate the words of the Gospel in an exclusively historical sense. The liturgy's primary aim is to portray the present, not the past, to give grace and life along with history. You must, therefore, give the parable a present day context, apply it personally. After each sentence stop and say: Christ is doing this today — and to help me. The parable brings to our attention three consoling truths: Christ gives His life for His sheep; He remains with them constantly through the bond of grace; He will not rest content until there be but one flock and one shepherd.

Now how do these points affect me personally?

- a) My Shepherd's death means my deliverance — why, even at this very moment of Mass, redemption's graces are flooding my soul.
- b) b) Between Christ and myself there must exist a closer intimacy than even that between brothers, relatives, or friends.
- c) c) It is through Christ's efforts that I have been brought into the fold, and He is ever striving to make me a more perfect member of His flock.

In order to realize these ends, Christ instituted His Church. This Church is His representative. There we may approach Him, there He is close to us, there He continues His presence: "I am with you all days, even unto the consummation of the world." Through the Church He speaks to us; in the Church flow the rivers of grace from Calvary's Cross; by means of the Church Christ seeks to become united personally with each of us. Oh, if we only would regard the Church as Christ mystically present in our midst! At this point I would like to single out two ways by which Christ fulfills His office of Shepherd in the Church, viz., through His words and through His very body.

The words He spoke will never die. "Heaven and earth shall pass away, but My words shall not pass away." Christ's words are as pregnant with life now as when they were first spoken. They give us the mind of our Good Shepherd as He instructs, warns, and consoles us; they are the words of a father, a mother, a brother, a friend, a judge. Once upon a time Christ's words performed miracles, they have not lost their power! "Young man, I say to you: arise. This day you shall be with Me in paradise." Treasure Christ's words most highly.

Christ's body in the Eucharist gives flesh to His words in the Gospel. Never disjoin one from the other. For together they constitute our most valuable earthly treasure, together they give us the whole Christ. What He promises in the Gospel He fulfills in the Eucharist. And thus the Mass, comprising the word and the body of Christ, brings Him completely to us. In the Gospel He says, "I am the Good Shepherd"— in the Eucharistic Sacrifice the Good Shepherd becomes present. In the Gospel He proclaims, "I lay down My life for My sheep"— in the Eucharistic Sacrifice He pours His life into our souls. In the Gospel He tells us, "I know Mine and Mine know Me"— in the Eucharistic Sacrifice He fulfills His claim: Whoever eats My flesh abides in Me and I in Him. In the Gospel He says, "Other sheep I have ... them also must I bring"—through the Eucharistic Sacrifice He builds up His flock, gathering stray sheep into the fold.

These, then, are our two greatest treasures, Christ's words and Christ's body. By embracing both we embrace our Savior whole and entire.
— The Church's Year of Grace, Pius Parsch

Commentary for the Readings in the Extraordinary Form: Third Sunday after Easter

"A little while and you shall see Me no longer. . .because I go to the Father. . .And you therefore have sorrow now; but I will see you again, and your heart shall rejoice, and your joy no one shall take from you" (Gospel).

Christianity is a religion of joy! (Introit). May "those. . .in error" receive this "light" (Prayer). Jesus predicts, however, that our joy can never be perfect here. The "cross before the crown" (Alleluia Verse) would indeed be a mystery had no Jesus lived it out for us.

An unbelieving "world shall rejoice" because it regards Him as dead and gone. But Christ departs only for a "little while" (Gospel) to test our love and loyalty. He shall return (as indicated by little figure of Christ in the clouds).

Prepare for His coming "in the day of visitation" by good example. "Behave yourselves honorably among pagans; that they ... observing your good works" for God and country (described in the Epistle) may recognize that Christianity is a religion of joy, now and forever!

Book Club

The next meeting of the book club for Catholic women will be Sunday, May 19 at 2:00 p.m. in the parish meeting room of St. Patrick Church. The book is Living the Catholic Faith by Charles J. Chaput, O.F.M. Cap. There are six copies available for loan in the St. Patrick Church Parish Office. Email christinacrim@yahoo.com with any questions. We look forward to seeing you.

Myeoffering

Never worry about forgetting your envelopes again. Electronic giving is simple and easy to use. Donations to church collections and St. Patrick School can be made once or on a recurring basis. Sign up for electronic giving at: <https://members.myeoffering.com/#/landing>

CCD and Adult Religious Education Classes

Formal CCD and Adult Religious Education classes for this academic year has ended. Please continue your faith education at home and as a family. Formed.org is an excellent way to continue learning through the summer months. Classes will resume on Sunday, September 8 at 8:30 a.m. in the school cafeteria. Thank you to all the students and adults who showed up faithfully to be a part of the program and make it a success. Thank you to the instructors for their dedication to our Catholic faith and their willingness to share it with others.

To the St. Patrick’s High School Alumni/Friends of Timothy Michael Armentrout 2/11/53 - 1/23/19

Paula Anderson Armentrout cordially invites the friends of Timothy Michael Armentrout to join in the burial of his ashes on Saturday, May 25, 2019 at 10:00 am. The burial will take place at the gravesites of Raymond Armentrout and Paige Armentrout in the Mount Calvary Cemetery on 2nd Street in Thomas, WV. Please bring your thoughts and fondest memories of Timmy. Luncheon to follow at the Blackwater Falls Lodge at 1584 Blackwater Lodge Road Davis, WV from 11:00am - 4:00pm. Please RSVP by telephone to Mike and Nancy Gissy at 304-269-3424 by May 15, 2019

Easter Lilies

Easter Lilies from this year's Pascal Celebration are available in the back of church to be taken home and planted in parishioners' gardens. If planted now, the lilies will bloom during the summer of 2020 to remind us of Christ's Resurrection and how the parish honored Him in 2019.

2019 Catholic Sharing Appeal

The 2019 Catholic Sharing Appeal (CSA) theme, Sowing Seeds of HOPE, provides direction and a sense of purpose for our Diocese as we meet the challenges of today and work toward the future to make our Church more vibrant and relevant. The CSA is an essential way to reach beyond ourselves and our parish and give HOPE to others through the diversity of our ministries, programs and services which enrich a Christ-centered way of life. Go to <https://csa.dwcministries.org/> to make a gift online or learn more about the Catholic Sharing Appeal.

Our 2019 goal is $21,345. Progress as of 05/08/019: $100

To be considered an “active” member of any parish (and thus eligible for Sacraments, sponsor eligibility, and the “Active Parishioner Rate of tuition” at a Catholic school), the parish takes into account family & individual involvement in parish life and ministries, and Mass attendance. Mass attendance is only able to be tracked accurately via collection envelopes. If you are not receiving envelopes currently, please contact the appropriate person at your parish. Parishioners over 18 are encouraged to register as their own household to help us keep records accurate and up-to-date.

Recognition of High School Graduates

Parishioners who are graduating from high school this year will be honored at Mass on Saturday, May 25 at St. Patrick Church in Weston. If your son or daughter is graduating, please call the St. Patrick Church parish office at 304 269-3048 to have them included in this list.

St. Patrick School Alumni Association Dinner

Saint Patrick School is hosting an Alumni Dinner on Saturday, May 18 from 7:00—9:00 p.m in the school gym. Invitations were mailed out last week. If you went to St. Patrick School, whether you graduated from there or not—and did not get an invitation, please call 304-269-5547 or email rfrazier@saintpatricks.school.

Hog Raffle to Help Fund Odyssey Teams to the World Competition

The Odyssey of the Mind Teams are having fund raisers to pay their expenses to the World Competition next month. One of the fund raisers is a Hog raffle. Two winners will be drawn and receive a 1/2 of hog, processed and wrapped by Teets Meat Processing in Elkins. Tickets are $5 each or 5 for $20. The drawing will take place on May 15 at 3:00 p.m. Basic butchering service included. Any upgrades requested of the butcher will be at the winner’s expense. To purchase tickets, contact Melissa Jordan at 304-517-8619. Hog donated by the Law Office of Trena Williams, PLLC.
