Twentieth Sunday in Ordinary Time he first reading is taken from Jeremiah 38:4-6; 8-10. The prophet was maltreated and imprisoned. Jeremiah was a man of God who suffered all his life for the sake of the true religion.

August 18, 2019

The second reading is from St. Paul's Letter to the Hebrews 12:1-4. The author of Hebrews says that our Lord endured the cross for the sake of the joy which lay before him. A great part of that joy was our resurrection to a glorified existence in the future life which his cross was earning for us.

The Gospel is from St. Luke 12:49-53. We who appreciate what he has done for us, and who are striving hard against our natural weaknesses to profit by his salvific work, can do something to console him for the desertion of so many that he still loves dearly. God wants no human being lost eternally. He detests sin but he still loves the sinner. He is always ready to grant a full pardon for each and every sin a man commits, if only the sinner has the humility to say "mea culpa."

Let those of us who have remained faithful never let a day pass without a fervent prayer for the prodigal sons of God, that they will get the humility to return to their father's home and ask for his pardon. Another grace, too, that we must ask of God is that peace between fellowmen will soon be restored. Christ foresaw that this concord would be broken, because of his very gospel of peace. First and foremost we must pray for, and do everything we can to help bring about, a reunion between all

O my Jesus, I beg You on behalf of the whole Church, grant it love and the light of Your Spirit and give power to the words of priests so that hardened hearts might be brought to repentance and return to You, O Lord.

Lord, give us holy priests. You Yourself maintain them in holiness. O Divine and Great High Priest, may the power of Your mercy accompany them everywhere and protect them from the devil's traps and snares which are continually being set for the souls of priests. May the power of Your mercy, O Lord, shatter and bring to naught all that might tarnish the sanctity of priests, for You can do all things. I ask You, Jesus, for a special blessing and for light for the priests before whom I will make my confessions throughout my lifetime. Amen. ~ St. Faustina

Anniversary Mass CD's

Much effort, time and resources went into making a CD of all the music that was a part of the Tenth Anniversary Tridentine Mass held at Saint Patrick on June 27th. With Grace and Providence, we managed to capture the whole musical presentation of historical value. This genre of divinely inspired music was composed in difficult style that was commonplace in Europe in the Renaissance Era. This music has not been heard in Weston or the state of West Virginia for well over 50 years. It is the very genre of music referred to in the Vatican II document MUSIC SACRUM which affirms the existence of the Treasury OF SACRED MUSIC written by Palestrina in Polyphony style and Gregorian Chant, instructing that is quote "a treasure of inestimable We captured the value." performance live during the Mass at Saint Patrick Church. Maestro Collins, his Renaissance Choir and Men's Scola presented the music in June. The recording will last for more than 300 years by two archival quality golden disk that were presented to Father Deviese at the Knights of Columbus Picnic on Sunday August 11, 2019 for Father DeViese to enjoy. Copies of the CD's are for sale and now available to parish members that that a colorful tray card of photos inside. Cost will be $25.00 each available after Masses over the next weekends in four the vestibule. Proceeds will be used to kick off the Organ Renovation Campaign. Please pay by cash or by check payable to Saint Patrick Church.

+ J M J +Novena To Saint Monica

(Begin on August 18)

Exemplary Mother of the Great Augustine, you perseveringly pursued your wayward son not with wild threats but with praverful cries to heaven.

Intercede for all parents in our day so that they may learn to draw their children to God.

Teach them how to remain close to their children, even the prodigal sons and daughters who have sadly gone astray.

Dear St Monica, troubled wife and mother, many sorrows pierced your heart during your lifetime. Yet you never despaired or lost faith.

With confidence, persistence and profound faith, you prayed daily for the conversion of your beloved husband, Patricius and your beloved son, Augustine. Grant us that same fortitude, patience and trust in the Lord.

Intercede for us, dear St. Monica, that God may favorably hear our plea for the perseverance of all parents of children who
