Papal Teaching on Eucharistic Worship

Pope John Paul II

The Church and the world have a great need of Eucharistic worship. Jesus vaits for us in this sacrament of love. Let as be generous with our time in going to neet Him in adoration and in contemplation that is full of faith and eady to make reparation for the great aults and crimes of the world. May our adoration never cease. —Dominicæ Cenæ

Pope Benedict XVI

The Eucharist makes the Risen Christ constantly present, Christ Who continues o give Himself to us, calling us to participate in the banquet of His Body and His Blood. From this full communion with Him comes every other element of the life of the Church, in the first place the communion among the faithful, the commitment to proclaim and give witness to the Gospel, the ardor of charity toward all, especially toward the poor and the smallest. —First Message to the College of Cardinals, April 20, 2005

Mass Intentions

Having the Holy Sacrifice of Mass offered is more effective than flowers or memorial gifts for your deceased loved ones or as a special intention for a living person or special occasion. Mass Intentions can be placed in a "Mass Intention" envelope and placed in the collection basket or given to the priest or the appropriate person at your parish. Please indicate if the person is living or deceased and the date you would like the Mass to be said. Mass dates are filled on a "first-come, first-serve" basis.

Sanctuary Lamp

The Sanctuary Lamp is burning in memory of Peter and Dorothy Flesher, September 15 - 28. If you would like to memorialize the sanctuary lamp in honor/memory of someone for a two-week period, please call the parish office at 304-269-3048.

Book Club

The Catholic Women's Bookclub recently read and discussed Mother Angelica's Biography. Raymond Arroyo provided a clear picture of Mother Angelica's life mission, through his fascinating account of the details of her remarkable life. Beginning with her miserable childhood in an Ohio slum, to the miraculous encounter with a stigmatic, which inexplicably healed her from a severe medical condition and led to her vocation. She then lived an intensely dedicated religious life, amidst an ongoing series of seeming miracles – all of which eventually led to founding the 'world's largest religious media empire', Eternal Word Television Network

Our group discussed key factors of what is faith, the benefits of not only spiritual suffering but all suffering, (no matter how great or small), that we may encounter in our lives. We talked about St. John of the Cross and his 'Dark Night of the Soul', which Mother Angelica referenced numerous times in her biography. Our group concluded that through Mother Angelica's example and her teachings, many have come to know their faith. Furthermore, she led many back to the Church and promoted fervently the Sacraments and devotions such as the Rosary. She was a champion for Jesus and His Holy Church. Out of a 5-star rating, we gave this book 4 stars! Our Next Meeting will be on September 29th at 2 pm in the Parish Office Meeting Room, "My Sisters the Saints" by Colleen Carroll Campbell is the book we are currently reading and will be discussing. The book discusses the author's trials and heartbreaks and begins her journey of spiritually seeking. She stumbles upon the writings and lives of 6 saints: Teresa of Avila, Therese of Lisieux, Faustina, Edith Stein, Mother Teresa of Calcutta, and Mary of the Nazarene. A copy is available for loan at St. Patrick's office or you can order your copy amazon.com.

Meetings are only ONE HOUR long; UNLESS WE HAVE A GUEST SPEAKER OR SPECIAL EVENT. All Catholic women are invited. A Study guide is provided to help engage discussion and for faith formation. Our meeting is only an hour-long (unless we have a guest speaker). Please join us for good books, good fellowship, and good discussions about the faith! Email christinacrim@yahoo.com if you want further information.

Income Projections for Organ Fund (Goal of $150,000)

The goal has been set to find 500 contributors by Friday, November 1, 2019 to complete the cost of the organ renovation. Suggested giving levels are set below, but participators are encouraged to give according to one's means. No contribution should jeopardize "keeping one's body and soul together."

Some options are: "Coins for Pipes" - saving weekly pocket change or part of an allowance, $175, $250, $350, $500 and $1000 +. Pledges can be made via a single check or in monthly installments. However, it is suggested that a quarter of the total amount pledged be paid with the initial check.

Donations may be placed in the weekend collection basket either in the regular envelope or in a white envelope. However, the envelope needs to be marked "Organ Fund." It would be helpful for the check memo space to indicate "Organ Fund" as well. Donation also may be mailed or brought to the church office.

Parish Membership & Benefits:

To be considered an "active" member of any parish (and thus eligible for Sacraments, sponsor eligibility, and the "Active Parishioner Rate of tuition" at a Catholic school), the parish takes into account the following things. First, to receive a discount at a Catholic School or to receive a sacrament, the children MUST attend weekend Mass. Second, family & individual involvement in parish life and ministries are taken into consideration. Mass attendance is only able to be tracked accurately via collection envelopes. If you are not receiving envelopes currently, please contact the appropriate person at your parish. Parishioners over 18 should register as a household to help us keep records accurate and up-to-date.

Priesthood Sunday

Priesthood Sunday, Sept. 29, 2019, is a special day set aside to honor the priesthood in the United States. It is a day to reflect upon and affirm the role of the priesthood in the life of the Church as a central one.

The number of priests and ordinations in the United States has steadily declined in the past 50 years. To see the official statistics, go to: http://cara.georgetown.edu/frequently-requested-church-statistics/.

Meanwhile, the number of parishes without a resident priest pastor has sharply increased in the same period of time. The men who answer the call to priesthood are special indeed, and they are working harder than ever before. The Mass Intentions for our churches on September 29 will be for an Increase of Holy Men to answer God's Call to the Priesthood.

A Priest

To live in the midst of the world without wishing its pleasures: To be a member of each family, yet belonging to none; To share all suffering; to penetrate all secrets; To heal all wounds: to go from men to God and offer Him their prayers: To return from God to men to bring pardon and hope; To have a heart of fire for Charity, and a heart of bronze for Chastity To teach and to pardon, console and bless always. My God, what a life; and it is yours. O priest of Jesus Christ.

~Jean Baptiste Lacordaire

"Living to the End: Practical Issues at the End of Life"

We're coming together to learn and discuss a path forward that honors the dignity of all human life so that all West Virginians can "live to the end".

October 16, 11:30 am – 4:00 pm All Saints Church, Bridgeport Registration: $10

For Families: We all want our loved ones to be treated with dignity throughout their lives. But lines of communication between family members and medical professionals can be clouded by grief at the end of life.

For Professionals: The needs of patients and their families are often caught somewhere between cultural expectations and the legal implications of caring for people at the end of life. Explaining the intricacies of palliative care to grieving families can be difficult.

Commentary for the Readings in the Extraordinary Form: Fifteenth Sunday after Pentecost

"'Young man, I say to thee, arise.' And he who was dead began to speak. And (Jesus) gave him (to his mother" (Gospel).

Holy Mother Church, like unto "a widow," weeps for the return of every sinner (figure in background) as if for an "only child"; that the Christ-Life might return to the godless, to the apostate.

"I say to thee, arise." Though alive we may be dead! Go to Him in prayer, "morning" and "night" (Gradual); and in the Sacraments also, that His Life-giving "graces" may save us from our death dealing "inclinations" (PostCommunion).

"While we have time, let us do good to all men," that they, too may be reborn, renewed in this Christ-Life. "Instruct . . . (one who is doing something wrong . . . Bear one another's burdens, and so you will fulfill the law of Christ" (Epistle).

Just a gentle reminder, for parishioners and visitors of St. Patrick Church and School, not park in the lot of the Danser Hardware Building. That lot is private property and we do not have permission to park there. Thank you for respecting the wishes of the property owner.

The Cardinal Virtue of Prudence

Prudence helps us to think ahead about what is right, to make good choices and to act properly.

It regulates our thoughts to prevent them from straying away from God.

It regulates our motives so we seek only to please God in all that we do.

It regulates our affections so that we center them on loving and serving God.

Prudence helps us to act with common sense and with supernatural sense, that is, using all human know-how and counting on God's grace. It means to choose the best means to obtain a particular goal.

(In order to give a more practical twist to what follows, instead of merely considering what "The prudent person..." does, one could take each point to heart and say: "I" want to make only good choices; "I" want to avoid evil and to do what is good in every moment, etc.)

1. The prudent person:

- -wants to make only good choices.
- -wants to avoid evil and to do what is good in every moment.
- -takes into account his/her experience from the past.
- -learns from his/her mistakes and tries not to repeat them.
- -tries to learn from others: from what has been good for them and what has been bad for them.
- -wants to avoid making mistakes, especially in those matters that might be most costly.
- -wants always to do what is right and good, fair to others and pleasing to God.
- -knows that he/she does not have all the right answers.
- tries to develop his/her memory, keeping in mind the lessons learned in the past.
- tries to be observant and to learn as much as possible every day.

2. The prudent person:

- -looks ahead and tries to plan wisely.
- -eagerly seeks advice from persons -parents, teachers, coaches, friends- who are more knowledgeable and experienced.
- -tries to foresee problems –bumps in the road- that lie ahead.
- -makes sure to think things through before going on to act.
- -before acting, pauses to consider if this is really the best thing to do or say.
- -tries to act on the good advice received from others.
- -knows his/her weaknesses and takes them into account.

3. The prudent person:

- -tries to think ahead and plans well for the next day, for the rest of this day, for the next few weeks, for the rest of his/her life.
- -gives a lot of importance to the value of time and tries hard not to waste a minute.
- -knows it is wise to be on time: for Mass, for school, for each appointment.
- -knows that it pays to keep things in order: each thing in its proper place.
- -tries to do first things first: not putting off for later what should be done here and now.

4. The prudent person:

- -tries not to do anything rash or foolish.
- -is prepared to say NO to others who would lead him/her into sin.
- -knows how to stay away from any person, place or thing that would lead him/her into sin.
- -prefers to stand-alone rather than to be with "a friend" or a crowd who are acting foolishly (and offending God in the
- -tries not to waste anything or lose things or break things.
- -does nothing in an unthinking way.
- -chooses to be a friend only of those who are also ready to behave properly.
- -is careful not to get hurt or to hurt others and so he/she always follows the rules of the game and is careful not to crash into
- -looks both ways before crossing the street (even on a one-way street).
- -looks out for pedestrians and other cars before opening the car door.
- -listens carefully to any/all instructions before beginning an assignment or playing a game.

5. The prudent person:

- -knows that he/she can always count on God's help.
- -prays to the Holy Spirit for light and for the grace necessary to be able to make good choices.
- -is not ashamed to ask for advice and help from parents, teachers, coaches, and friends.
- -is confident that the future is bright and that "for those who love God, all things work together unto to good." (Romans 8:28)
