Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

Volume V, Issue 3

The Lewis County Catholic Times

*A Weekly Bulletin for the parishes of Saint Patrick Catholic Church, Weston, Saint Boniface Catholic Church, Camden and Good Shepherd Mission, Glenville, West Virginia
 Established 1848*

The Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

The first reading is taken from the Book of the Prophet Isaiah 49:3, 5-6 and is the second of the "suffering servant" prophecies, found in Isaiah. These were prophecies uttered during the Babylonian exile to encourage the Jewish exiles to persevere in their trust in Yahweh, who would soon liberate them from Babylon, and eventually send them the long-expected Messiah, promised to Abraham.

The second reading is from the first Letter of Saint Paul to the Corinthians 1:1 -3. The opening verses of this letter have been chosen for the reading because they show the prophecy, read in the first lesson, as fulfilled among the pagans, as well as emphasizing the purpose of the Messiah's coming: the sanctification and true enlightenment of all nations.

The Gospel is from St. John 1:29-34. The pages of the Gospel present John the Baptist as a symbolic example of a 'bridegroom's friend', as Christ's excellent and exemplary witness. The Baptist's pre-eminent witness was affirmed in two ways: firstly with regard to the content of his testimony and secondly with respect to its style.

With regard to the content of his testimony, the Baptist identified Jesus as 'the Lamb of God who takes away the sins of the world' (Jn 1:29). Anticipating Jesus' messianic and salvific role, each of the four evangelists start their Gospels with the Baptist's words. The Lamb refers to the idea of salvation. The Lamb is the gift of liberation that, following the flight from Egypt, the Israelites sacrificed to the Lord. The Lamb recalls the servant of the

Agnus Dei (The Lamb of God), by Francisco de Zurbarán, c. 1635-1640

Lord, the messianic image described by the Prophet Isaiah, 'like a lamb led to the slaughter-house, like a sheep dumb before its shearers' (Is 53:7). The Lamb recalls the image of the Victorious Lamb in the Book of the Apocalypse who at the end of time will definitively destroy evil and sin. John the Baptist is therefore, an authoritative witness who knew Jesus' exact identity and why He came amongst men.

With regard to John the Baptist's style, St John's Gospel (cfr Jn 3:28-29) presents St John the Baptist through the image of the 'bridegroom's friend'. He gives witness, yet is not positioned central to the events that are unfolding. His testimony is totally centralised on Christ. John indicates the presence of the Lord and then steps into the margins. 'I am not the Christ' and he goes on to affirm 'I am the one who has been sent to go in front of him. It is the bridegroom who has the bride; and yet the bridegroom's friend, who stands there and listens to him, is filled with joy at the bridegroom's voice. This is the joy I feel, and it is complete. He must grow greater, I must grow less.' (Jn 3:28-30)

Today's Gospel offers us an eloquent example to imitate, so that we can also become Christ's authoritative witnesses. A believer can only give an authoritative witness if it coexists in perfect harmony with two of the Baptist's evangelical qualities. Firstly, knowledge of Christ that is cultivated through prayer, the sacramental and ecclesial life, reading good books and edifying friendships. Secondly, the constant attributes of a 'bridegroom's friend' who goes in search of the Groom through the virtue of humility because always, in everyone's life, Christ must increase and we must decrease!

6:00 p.m., St. Patrick Church

All members are urged to bring a potential new member to our next meeting. If you are interested in joining the Daughters but don't personally know any of the members, please come to the next meeting!

The Catholic Daughters are women of Faith under the patronage of the Blessed Virgin Mary, glorifying the Lord, and serving others! The Court is not exclusive to parishioners of St. Patrick Church. Members can be from any parish that does not have a court. Yearly dues are $30. Checks can be made payable to CDA 379 and mailed to P. O. Box 764, Weston, WV 26452

Parish Membership & Benefits:

To be considered an "active" member of any parish (and thus eligible for Sacraments, sponsor eligibility, and the "Active Parishioner Rate of tuition" at a Catholic school), the parish takes into account the following things. First, to receive a discount at a Catholic School or to receive a sacrament, the children MUST attend weekend Mass. Second, family & individual involvement in parish life and ministries are taken into consideration. Mass attendance is only able to be tracked accurately via collection envelopes. If you are not receiving envelopes currently, please contact the appropriate person at your parish. Parishioners over 18 should register as a household to help us keep records accurate and up-to-date.

CCD and Adult Religious Education are back in Session

CCD is back in full swing after the Christmas break. CCD is for EVERYONE not just those in public school. This means all kids in grades k-8 should be attending CCD on Sunday morning.

We also have Religious Education for adults so please don't just drop your child and leave. There really is something for everyone!

Currently, classes begin at 8:15 a.m. Beginning with the new Mass Schedule in February, we will begin an hour later.

9 Days for Life Begins Next Week

The annual, pro-life novena, 9 Days for Life, starts Tuesday, January 21! You can receive the email daily through email by going to: <https://www.respectlife.org/9-days-for-life> and signing up now. If you don't want to sign up you can go there daily beginning January 21 and click on the corresponding day for the intention, a short reflection and suggested actions to help build a culture of life.

Poinsettias are Available

Poinsettias in the back of church can be available for pick up to take home or to give to someone as a continuation of the spirit of the Christmas Season. Any poinsettias not taken will be disposed of.

Catholic Women's Book Club

The next meeting of the Catholic Women's Book club is Sunday, January 26 at 2 in the parish meeting room of St. Patrick Church. The discussion will be on "Joy to the World" by Scott Hahn. If you don't have a copy it can be purchased at amazon.com or thriftbooks.com. Study guides with discussion questions will be provided. This is a great time to start a New Year's Resolution, to learn and grow spiritually in the Faith!

DON'T MISS THIS TRIP OF A LIFETIME!!

Commentary for the Readings in the Extraordinary Form: Second Sunday after Epiphany

"A wedding took place . . . (Mary) said to Jesus, 'They have no wine.' . . . Jesus said to (the attendants), 'Fill the jars with water . . . Draw out now' . . . When the chief steward had tasted the water . . . become wine . . . (he said to the bridegroom), 'Thou hast kept the good wine until now'" (Gospel).

A lesson to our young married couples of today! Believe and trust in Him to keep your family if you keep His Word! A spiritual change also took place, since "His disciples believed in Him" (Gospel).

Consider the daily miracle of God's "grace that has been given us" (Epistle), to change from evil to good in both single and married life. Jesus "kept the good wine" of Divine Life for us (symbolized by Chalice at left in the picture). We must "fill the jars . . . (of our good will) to the brim" (Gospel).

Let us recognize the "great things" (Offertory) done for our soul through Mary's prayers to Jesus. Like the disciples, let us "believe" and "do whatever He tells" us (Gospel).

National Catholic Schools Week

We will kick off National Catholic Schools Week on Sunday, January 26 at the 9:30 Mass. This year, we will resume our previous practice of having students from Catholic Schools participate in all the ministries at Mass. Except for cantoring, but that is something that will happen next year!

Following Mass, there will be a reception and open house in the school for EVERYONE to participate in. Take advantage of this opportunity to see for yourself ALL the great things happening at St. Patrick School.
