Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Volume VI, Issue 7

The Lewis County Catholic Times

A Weekly Bulletin for the parish of Saint Patrick Catholic Church, Weston, West Virginia
Established 1848

The Sixth Sunday on Ordinary Time

The first reading is taken from the Book of Leviticus 13:1-2, 44-46 and concerns the regulations enforced by the priests regarding certain bodily diseases which made a person unclean and a menace to the health of his neighbors.

The second reading is from the First Letter of St. Paul to the Corinthians 10:31, 11:1 and speaks of our imitation of Paul as he imitates Christ for the sake of the Gospel, as well as of the unity of the Church of God.

The Gospel is from St. Mark 1:40-45. We see both the divine power and the divine compassion of Jesus in this act of healing. The divine power was necessary in all instantaneous cures. Even if the diseases were curable, the ordinary process of nature took time to fight off the causes and to return to normality. Therefore, where there was an instantaneous recovery some power above nature, some supernatural cause brought it about. But where the disease was incurable, as real leprosy then was, to remove it by a simple word of command was more emphatically still the result of divine power. This divine power Jesus had, for he was himself divine, the Son of God.

His compassion for suffering humanity was, however, co-terminus with his power, it was also divine. It was out of compassion for the sad lot of the human race on earth that he descended to man's level, becoming man, equal to us in all things except sin, in order to suffer with us and for us. By his human sufferings he made an atonement, a satisfaction for all the sins of the world—a satisfaction which all mankind could never make—to his heavenly Father, and so obtained for us God's pardon. At the same time, 'by joining our human nature to his divine nature, he brought us into the divine orbit and made us adopted sons of God and heirs of the eternal life of the Blessed Trinity. Because this seems almost too good to be true, there are men who deny it or refuse to accept it. Such men make the mistake of measuring the infinite compassion of God with the limited yardstick of their own finite and puny compassion.

Thanks be to God, for his infinite compassion! Thanks be to God, for Christ his Son, who came and dwelt amongst us! He put heaven and a share in the life of God within our reach; he has shown us how to attain them, giving in his Church and the sacraments, all the necessary aids. But we still need all of Christ's compassion if we are to get there. Because of our inclination to sin and because of the many times we unfortunately give in to that inclination, nothing but the mercy of God can save us from our own folly. However, that mercy is available, if only we ask for it. What we sinners need is the faith and confidence of the leper in today's gospel reading. He believed firmly in the power and the mercy of Jesus. "If you will, you can make me clean," was his approach to Jesus.

This should be our approach too, if we have the misfortune to fall into serious sin. Jesus does will and does want our salvation. His incarnation, and death on the cross, proves that. The fact that he left the power to forgive sins to his Church is another proof of both his will and desire to help us. "All power has been given to me in heaven and on earth," he stated. Part of that power which he left to his Church is in the sacrament of penance where the leprosy of sin can be washed away and the sinner restored to new and perfect spiritual health. What folly for any Christian then, to commit sin and isolate himself, like the unclean leper, from God. But it is greater folly still, to remain in this unclean state when the cure for his disease is so easily available to any sincere penitent.

~Excerpted from The Sunday Readings by Fr. Kevin O'Sullivan, O.F.M.

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.

I love You above all things,
and I desire to receive You into my soul.
Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart.
I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You.

Never permit me to be separated from You.

Amen.

Mass Intentions

Having the Holy Sacrifice of Mass offered is more effective than flowers or memorial gifts for your deceased loved ones or as a special intention for a living person or special occasion. Mass Intentions can be placed in a “Mass Intention” envelope and placed in the collection basket or mailed to the parish office. Please indicate if the person is living or deceased and the date you would like the Mass to be said. Mass dates are filled on a “first-come, first-serve” basis.

Parish Membership & Benefits:

To be considered an “active” member of any parish (and thus eligible for Sacraments, sponsor eligibility, and the “Active Parishioner Rate of tuition” at a Catholic school), the parish takes into account the following things. First, to receive a discount at a Catholic School or to receive a sacrament, the children MUST attend weekend Mass. Second, family & individual involvement in parish life and ministries are taken into consideration. Mass attendance is only able to be tracked accurately via collection envelopes. If you are not receiving envelopes currently, please contact the appropriate person at your parish. Parishioners over 18 should register as a household to help us keep records accurate and up-to-date.

St. Patrick’s Students Give to the Community during Catholic Schools Week

Collection for Essential Workers

by Darla Oldaker, third grade teacher

Catholic Schools Week 2021 was a great week! Covid-19 tried to keep the fun out of it this year, but St. Patrick’s showed it who was boss! We were able to do many activities throughout the week to show God’s love for us, our school, our community, and our Church. Third Grade was blessed with the task of packing the Blessing Baskets for the essential workers in the community. St. Patrick’s students and families donated snack foods the week before and the week of Catholic Schools Week. We spent an hour separating snacks and using our math skills to divide them up as evenly as possible. Making 4 baskets total, which were hand delivered to the Fire Department, City Police Department, Health Department, and Stonewall Jackson Memorial Hospital: with the help of 4th-7th grade. We took time to pray over the baskets, that the snacks would keep our essential workers healthy, safe, and bring a little joy to their hearts knowing we are thinking of them and are so grateful for all they do. We can’t wait for next year’s Catholic Schools Week and all the good we can continue to spread along with the love and kindness God gives each and everyone of us. Thank you, St. Patrick’s Church, for supporting us and helping us spread the amazingsness we get to experience everyday at St. Patrick’s School.

Collection for Criss Manor Residents

by Lindsey Clevenger, kindergarten teacher

The students of St. Patrick School were asked to donate various items during Catholic Schools Week. Once the items were collected, the kindergarten class helped sort and pack the donated items. We were able to create 38 hygiene bags complete with soap, body wash, hand sanitizer, lotion, antibacterial wipes, and travel tissues. We were also able to donate several boxes of tissues and a large box filled with puzzles, games, playing cards, word searches, crossword puzzles, coloring books, and pens, pencils, and crayons. Our school’s students also donated snacks and we were able to create 62 large snacks bags. All the donations were delivered to Criss Manor where the items will be distributed to the residents who live there. I’m so proud of what our students were able to accomplish and how many people we were able to help.

OPEN ENROLLMENT FOR EARLY CHILDHOOD

St. Patrick's School has opened enrollment for the 3 and 4 Year-Old Programs for our parishioners and faith community. Our program is faith-based and rigorous to give our children an excellent beginning for a life of learning. Our full-day programs include two, four, and five day programming options, as well as extended childcare. The tuition rate for 2021-2022 is $30 per diem. Please contact the school via phone (304.269.5547) or by email (ischeu@saintpatricks.school) for more information.
