

St. Patrick Catholic Church

The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ

Corpus Christi (Body and Blood of Christ) is a Eucharistic solemnity, or better, the solemn commemoration of the institution of that sacrament. It is, moreover, the Church's official act of homage and gratitude to Christ, who by instituting the Holy Eucharist gave to the Church her greatest treasure. Holy Thursday, assuredly, marks the anniversary of the institution, but the commemoration of the Lord's passion that very night suppresses the rejoicing proper to the occasion. Today's observance, therefore, accents the joyous aspect of Holy Thursday.

The Mass and the Office for the feast was edited or composed by St. Thomas Aquinas upon the request of Pope Urban IV in the year 1264. It is unquestionably a classic piece of liturgical work, wholly in accord with the best liturgical traditions. . . It is a perfect work of art.

— Excerpted from The Church's Year of Grace, Pius Parsch.

Symbols: The usual symbol for the Holy Eucharist is a chalice, with a host rising out of it.

The chalice is shown with a hexagonal base, as a rule, symbolizing the Six Attributes of the Deity (power, wisdom, majesty, mercy, justice and love), and with a richly wrought stem of gold, studded with precious stones. The host is shown as the typical circular wafer, upon which may be imprinted the letters I. N. R. I., from which proceed rays of light, symbolical of the Real Presence, the substantial presence of Christ under the species of bread and wine.

An altar, upon which is set a cross, two or more candles in their tall candlesticks, a chalice and a ciborium, is another symbol often seen.

Corpus Christi Prayer

Jesus, Body and Blood,
we are grateful for the gift of your life and the way it strengthens us to live ours.

Teach us to draw on the gift of your Body and Blood for energy, renewal, strength and grace.

May we never take the gift of your presence for granted.

Amen

In the words of St. Thomas:

"How inestimable a dignity, beloved brethren, divine bounty has bestowed upon us Christians from the treasury of its infinite goodness! For there neither is nor ever has been a people to whom the gods were so nigh as our Lord and God is nigh unto us.

"Desirous that we be made partakers of His divinity, the only-begotten Son of God has taken to Himself our nature so that having become man, He would be enabled to make men gods. Whatever He assumed of our nature He wrought unto our salvation. For on the altar of the Cross He immolated to the Father His own Body as victim for our reconciliation and shed His blood both for our ransom and for our regeneration. Moreover, in order that a remembrance of so great benefits may always be with us, He has left us His Body as food and His Blood as drink under appearances of bread and wine.

"O banquet most precious! O banquet most admirable! O banquet overflowing with every spiritual delicacy! Can anything be more excellent than this repast, in which not the flesh of goats and heifers, as of old, but Christ the true God is given us for nourishment? What more wondrous than this holy sacrament! In it bread and wine are changed substantially, and under the appearance of a little bread and wine is had Christ Jesus, God and perfect Man. In this sacrament sins are purged away, virtues are increased, the soul is satiated with an abundance of every spiritual gift. No other sacrament is so beneficial. Since it was instituted unto the salvation of all, it is offered by Holy Church for the living and for the dead, that all may share in its treasures.

"My dearly beloved, is it not beyond human power to express the ineffable delicacy of this sacrament in which spiritual sweetness is tasted in its very source, in which is brought to mind the remembrance of that all-excelling charity which Christ showed in His sacred passion? Surely it was to impress more profoundly upon the hearts of the faithful the immensity of this charity that our loving Savior instituted this sacrament at the last supper when, having celebrated the Pasch with His disciples. He was about to leave the world and return to the Father. It was to serve as an unending remembrance of His passion, as the fulfillment of ancient types — this the greatest of His miracles. To those who sorrow over His departure He has given a unique solace."

School News

We have had a lot happening at our school lately. Too much to put everything in one bulletin! During the summer months, we will take a look back at all the wonderful things our students and teachers accomplished in April, May, and June. We will do our best to keep you informed of any upcoming events and we may even be able to show you some updated chicken pictures. Thank you to everyone who takes the time to read the bulletin or just look at the pictures.

Final School Mass for the 20-21 Academic Year

On Friday, June 4, Fr. Ondeck celebrated the final Mass of the 20-21 school year. This Mass was a little different than other school Masses as the children did not have to report to the school before coming to Mass. They came to Mass with their families. It was very heartwarming to see so many parents and grandparents attend Mass with their “students.” Some of those in attendance are not Catholic or members of our parish but wanted to show their unwavering support for our school.

While everyone is looking forward to summer, they are also looking forward to another wonderful school year next year.

Fr. Ondeck closed the Mass with his favorite quote, “forward, always forward, everywhere forward” by Archabbot Boniface Wimmer, O.S.B.

We're Back!!

We are so excited to announce that we are returning to our roots and have enrolled Jillie as a new student in Saint Patrick School for the upcoming 2021-2022 school year!

Like so many of you, since our departure four years ago, we have quietly monitored and patiently waited for signs of Saint Patrick’s revival.

With the prospect of a new administration, already APPROVED NEW curriculum and textbooks...AND the first-hand witnessing of a devoted and supportive staff that is EXCITED to teach it...we are more confident than ever that now is that time!

Under the guided hand of Father Ondeck, we (as parents) feel more optimistic than ever before that Saint Patrick School, indeed, will once again be the EXCELLENT BEGINNING we knew it to be for our older children. We are beyond grateful that Jillie is going to be blessed with the same experiences they had.

So, Saint Patrick School, THANK YOU for welcoming us back into your family.

Ready or not, second grade, HERE WE COME!

PS - If you have the same curiousness as we did regarding St. Pat’s station in education, I urge you to schedule a tour.

Meet the staff, see their excitement, and feel the positive energy. Then talk with Mrs. Clevenger and Father and ask ALL the questions!

I can honestly attest that I left our meeting with the best feeling and literal excitement in my spirit.

So many good things are happening, and the best is yet to come! But don’t take my word for it, see for yourself!!
