

St. Patrick Catholic Church

Welcome Back! We have Missed Each and Every One of You!

Thirteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Healing of the Bleeding Woman, c. 4th century. Catacombs of Marcellinus and Peter, Rome, Italy

The first reading is taken from the Book of Wisdom 1:13-15; 2:23-24 and references a truth which is clearly stated for the first time in the whole Old Testament — man's real destiny is an unending life with God.

The second reading is from the Second Letter of St. Paul to the Corinthians 8:7, 9, 13-15. St. Paul urges the Corinthians to give generously toward the collection he is organizing for the poor Jewish converts in Palestine.

The Gospel is from St. Mark 5:21-43 or 5:21-24, 35-43. Today's gospel gives us two further proofs of the divine power and the infinite mercy of our Savior. Apart from the primary purpose of proving his claim to be the promised Messiah, all his miracles had as their aim and end — the benefit of suffering human beings. He worked no miracle for the sake of astonishing people or to satisfy idle gossip. Each one was performed in order to help someone in distress. All who were helped by his miracles of mercy had one thing in common — they were motivated by trust in his mercy and power. The leper in Matthew (8:2) expressed the sentiments of them all: "Lord, if only you will you can cleanse me (of my leprosy)." In many cases, as for instance that of Jairus above, it was a relative or friends who showed this faith and confidence. It was always present either in the fortunate person or in the relative or friend who asked for the miracle.

The Gospels give us only some of the many miracles our Lord worked. They give them to prove that he was what he claimed to be — the Son of God and the long-expected Savior; and also to prove his compassionate understanding and sympathy for suffering humanity.

We must not forget, however, that the meaning of his miracles and his mission was lost on thousands of his contemporaries in Palestine, small though the country was. While great throngs followed our Lord and listened to his message and were interested in his mission, still great throngs remained at home, stolidly immersed in their worldly tasks and thoughts. They heard rumors about the man from Nazareth who was said to be the Messiah, and was supposed to be able to work miracles, but they were too practical, too sensible to listen to such rumors. Anyway they had no interest in the Messiah, or in silly spiritual things, they were fully occupied with their financial and worldly interests.

Has the world changed much in nineteen centuries? How many millions of nominal Christians ignore Christ and his Gospel today, millions who are too practical, too down-to-earth to waste time on such a silly thing as their eternal salvation! How many millions are spiritually sick and dying but who have not the faith, humility and confidence of Jairus, to cast themselves at the feet of Jesus and ask him to cure them? How fortunate would not people be if they would repeat the leper's prayer: "Lord, if only you will you can make me clean"; if they could, like the suffering woman in today's Gospel, break through the throng of worldly pride, worldly interests and worldly associates and touch the hem of his garment; if they had the faith of Jairus; if only they could say to our Lord "come and lay your hands upon me so that I may be made well and live."?

Today, let us say a fervent prayer of thanksgiving to God for the gift of active faith which he has given us and beg of him to keep that faith ever alive in our breasts. Let us think, too, of our fellowmen, our brothers in Christ, who are so busy with their worldly occupations and pleasures that they cannot find time to listen to his message. They are spiritually anemic and almost spiritually dead, but cannot push their way toward Christ through the throngs of earthly, worldly barricades which they have built about themselves. Our sincere prayers can help them to overcome these obstacles; frequently and fervently let us ask God to send them his efficacious grace so that these brothers in Christ will also be with him in heaven.

Priests on Vacation and Nuns on the Beach

I wanted to share with you some pictures of Father Ondeck's "vacation." While he was at the beach, his vacation included directing a retreat for the Sister Servants of the Sacred Heart of Jesus where Sr. Mary Joseph Calore celebrated her 25th Anniversary of solemn vows. A couple of the nuns had never seen the ocean! Thank you Fr. Ondeck, for reminding us that our faith should never go on vacation.

Our Neighbor Collection

July

- Deodorant, and feminine hygiene products

Items can be placed in the plastic tote on the back porch of the parish office.

How You Can Help

The church and school collect different items to help local organizations and the environment.

In addition to the monthly supplies for "Our Neighbor," we collect the tabs from cans for Ronald McDonald House. However, Ronald McDonald House will no longer accept used ink cartridges, so we cannot take them.

We also collect towels and blankets for animal shelters and rescues and vet offices. Items need to be clean and in decent shape. We don't want to give them things they cannot use.

We will also collect aluminum cans. Please remove the tab and rinse and drain the cans before bringing them to us. The money from the recycled cans will be given to the school. All items can be taken to the parish office or left in the tote at the back door.

School News

Coming soon - Adopt a Classroom

In the near future, we will share information with our parishioners, school families, and organizations on adopting a classroom in the school. One of the projects will be to replace all of the school's air conditioning units. We will contact a professional who works with heating and air conditioners to find out the correct size needed for each room. We will also undertake other projects to beautify and enhance the classrooms and school.

Traveling T-Shirts

We are asking anyone who bought a school t-shirt to take a picture of you wearing the t-shirt during your summertime travels. Pictures can be sent to Lindsey Clevenger at lclevenger@saintpatricks.school.

We can't wait to see all the places our students, parishioners, and t-shirts travel.

Stone Soup

We are overjoyed to share with you a little play put on by magnificent second graders on Friday, May 28. For many weeks, Mrs. Brittany Smith worked with her students on a play to present to the kindergarten and first-grade classes and to Father Ondeck. The play was Stone Soup, and it was based on a book of the same name. It was terrific! Everyone did an outstanding job! Thank you, Mrs. Smith. We hope you and the kids enjoyed it as much as we did!

No daily Mass

We will not have daily Mass on Monday, June 28, or Wednesday, June 30. Fr. Ondeck will be attending a conference suggested to him by Bishop Brennan, for pastors of schools. Please continue to pray for Fr. Ondeck and all priests and for an abundant increase in vocations to the priesthood. Especially in our diocese.

Latin Mass

Latin Mass is on hiatus. We are very sorry for any inconvenience this may cause. Fr. Brian Crenwelge celebrates a traditional Latin Mass every Saturday at 9:00 a.m. at St. John University Parish in Morgantown. Updates concerning Latin Mass will be shared in future bulletins and on our website and Facebook page.

2021 Jarrod West Basketball Camp
