Passiontide Meditation—Pushing On

Now we come to the solemn weeks of Passiontide. Swiftly, swiftly go the days, and in this final stretch of Lent the devil is very busy. He gets busier and busier. The Gospel of the first Sunday said that the devil left our dear Lord “until an opportune time” (Lk 4:13). The devil is full of diabolical zeal to push on quickly to what he wants to have. What does he want? It is that we should be despondent, that we should feel, “Oh, what is the use?” after all the misspent graces of this Lent, all the things that seem to be going wrong. Knowing that, God inspired the Apostle to exhort us in today’s Second Reading to strain forward. I like the old translation which said “push on” (see Phil 3:13). Not “walk on” or “run on”, but push, which means to put the things that are in your way out of the way. Let us in our meditation and our prayer this coming week see what we need to push out of the way.

What is impeding our swiftly moving toward a deeper union with our crucified Lord than ever before? What do we need to push out of the way? It is usually not polite to push people or things out of our way. But spiritually that is what I should do when the interior obstacles are impeding me from moving swiftly: give them one good push that will send them reeling. There is just one person to whom I need to give a good push—myself and my attachment to myself. Let’s be very “pushy” in this week. We do not usually use that colloquial word in a very pleasant way; but in the way I am speaking now, out of the love and the eagerness of my heart, it is different. In this way it is wonderful to be really “pushy”.

Isaiah is telling us that we are a people that God formed for himself so that we might announce his praise (see Is 43:21). When, with the strength of grace, we have pushed out of our way what does not belong there, what impedes our progress into the heart of Jesus, then we can each of us be the person that he formed for himself to announce his praise. We can announce it in so many ways to one another. Every act of virtue, every smile, every act of love, every act of mercy and forgiveness announces his praise, because it is all due to him. We can do nothing good of ourselves. But “I can do all things him who strengthens me” (Phil 4:13). Every good thing that I allow his grace to achieve in me announces his praise.

I announce his praise and show what his mercy can achieve, what his grace can do, by my humility and my thankfulness in being forgiven, my joy in being allowed to go on living, my wonder that God has not wiped me out yet! God has not given up on me.

Again in Philippians, Saint Paul tells us “to know him and the power of his resurrection and [the] sharing of his sufferings by being conformed to his death” (Phil 3:10, NAB); or, in another translation, “by being formed into the pattern of his death”. His death leads to his Resurrection, and our own little deaths united with his can lead to our resurrection. We have to be formed in that pattern of his death and rising. What is that pattern? It is a pattern that keeps repeating the motif. He forgives, and then he forgives again. He shows mercy, and then he shows mercy again and again. He places his hope in us, and, despite all our counter-evidence, he hopes and hopes again. Despite our poor response to his love, he loves and loves again, on and on and on. This is his pattern. We can only push on in his pattern of death and rising, that pattern of mercy, of forgiving, of hoping, and of loving.

—Mother Mary Francis, A Time of Renewal

Presence: The Mystery of the Eucharist

Although the Eucharist appears to be simple bread and wine, it is actually the "source and summit" of the Christian life. Presence: The Mystery of the Eucharist explores the truth and beauty of Christ's real presence in the Eucharist, from its origins in Sacred Scripture, to its profound role in the life of the Church and her members. It is the crescendo of the entire story of salvation.

Will and Estate Planning

Have you considered remembering St. Patrick's in your will or estate plans? A bequest through a Last Will and Testament is the simplest way of creating a lasting legacy of support for St. Pat's. Bequests should be made out to: "The Bishop of the Roman Catholic Diocese of Wheeling-Charleston, or his successors in office," with a specification of the purpose for which the bequest is to be used (i.e. "for the use of St. Patrick Parish, Weston).

"Forward, always forward, everywhere forward! We must not be held back by debts, bad years or by difficulties of the times. Man's adversity is God's opportunity."

Archabbot Boniface Wimmer, O.S.B.

When Should Catholics Not Receive Holy Communion?

- If you have a mortal sin on your soul. Some serious sins include (but are not limited to) being married outside the church, being unmarried but living together or purposely not attending Sunday Mass or holy days of obligation. For more info on what constitutes a mortal sin, refer to the Catechism of the Catholic Church 1857 - 1859.
- If you have not observed the Eucharistic Fast one hour before receiving. Plan to eat your breakfast after Mass!
- If you have not yet received First Communion.

Why Can't Non-Catholics Receive Holy Communion?

Because Catholics believe that the celebration of the Eucharist is a sign of the reality of the oneness of faith, life, and worship, members of those churches with whom we are not yet fully united are not admitted to Holy Communion.

For those who cannot receive Eucharist at this time, we welcome you to join in our liturgy, to pray and sing with us. Please remain in the pew during the Communion Procession, offering your heartfelt prayers to our God of love and mercy. We eagerly await the time when you will join us at the Eucharistic table!

Parish Membership & Benefits:

To be considered an "active" member of any parish (and thus eligible for Sacraments, sponsor eligibility, and the "Active Parishioner Rate of tuition" at a Catholic school), the parish takes into account the following things. First, to receive a discount at a Catholic School or to receive a sacrament, the children MUST attend weekend Mass. Second, family & individual involvement in parish life and ministries are taken into consideration. Mass attendance is only able to be tracked accurately via collection envelopes. If you are not receiving envelopes currently, please contact the parish office. Parishioners over 18 should register as a household to help us keep records accurate and up-to-date.

Schedule and Mass Intentions

Saturday, April 2, 2022	5:30 PM	Mass for †Ted and Mary Eldridge by the Tillman family
Sunday, April 3, 2022	10:30 AM	Mass for the People of the Parish
Monday, April 4, 2022	8:15 AM	Mass for †Regina Quesenberry by family
Tuesday, April 5, 2022	NO Mass	NO Mass
Wednesday, April 6, 2022	5:50 PM	Mass for †Bryan Francis
Thursday, April 7, 2022	8:15 AM	Mass for Priests and Religious throughout the World
Friday, April 8, 2022	8:15 AM	Mass for †Judi Rowan by family

Sunday, April 10, 2022	10:30 AM	Mass for the People of the Parish
The Sanctuary Lamp is burning March 27— April 9, 2022, in memory of Bill and Mary Spray and family.

Why is Mass Offered for Specific People?

The greatest prayer that we have as Christians is the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass. At each Mass, Christ's Sacrifice on Calvary is renewed and the graces achieved on the Cross are applied to souls for their salvation. This is why we have Masses offered for particular intentions.

Sanctuary Candle Intentions

The red Sanctuary Lamp by the tabernacle burns to remind us of the Eucharistic presence of Jesus Christ. It is a mark of honor to remind the faithful of the Real Presence of Christ, and is a profession of their love and affection for our Lord. If you wish to have the Sanctuary Lamp burning in memory or honor of a loved one, or to honor a special occasion, please contact the parish office. The cost of the candle is $20.00. It will burn for two weeks. The memorial will also be published in the Bulletin.

School News

First Confession

Congratulations to our 2nd grade students who received the Sacrament of First Reconciliation on Thursday, March 24. These students and those in our parish First Communion class will receive the Sacrament of First Eucharist on Sunday May 8. May God's blessings be with you always.

Congratulations!

Seventh Grader, Nick Haught represented St. Patrick School at Regional Math Field Day. Congratulations Nick!

"Eggciting" Weeks Are Here

Each spring, Mrs. Moody's First Grade Class has an "eggciting" couple of weeks with their egg hatching project. Throughout the weeks, the class completes different projects and each student keeps a "chick hatching journal." This year, each student was given a hard boiled egg along with a nest to care for their egg for one day. They were unable to leave their "baby" alone so they needed to either get a babysitter or take their egg with them anytime they left their desk. If it was left alone, the "predator" could take their egg. The students completed a checklist at different times throughout the day. The list reminded them to check that their egg was warm and safe (no cracks) and that it had been turned.

Tie-Dye T-shirts

In addition to the leprechaun mischief on St. Patrick's Day, our Preschool and Pre-K classes made tie dye t-shirts on St. Patrick's Day. Here they are with their teacher, Mrs. Destiny Burton posing for a picture in their beautiful fun shirts. Both the students and the teachers enjoyed this fun activity. Next year they should invite the parish secretary to join the fun!

40 Cans for 40 Days Food Drive

WE NEED YOUR HELP!

We only have two weeks to collect 3186.8 lbs. of food!

The Knights of Columbus 40 Cans for 40 Days food drive is underway. They need our help, they to reach their goal of collecting 4000 pounds of non-perishable food for a local food pantry. We understand that the prices of everything we buy have increased in recent months. Making ends meet is tough, but we aren't going hungry. Most of us have things we can give up or cut back on. Many in our community don't have that option.

Bags for you to fill are located in the church vestibule. Thank you to everyone who has helped do far.

The Knights of Columbus will meet on Tuesday, April 5 at 7:00 p.m. in the cafeteria.

Goal 4000 lbs.
