This work is also known as "What Our Lord Saw from the Cross".

A motley crew has gathered round the recently crucified Christ. At his feet, we see a woman, probably Mary Magdalene. In the middle of a group of women, a possible two more Mary's: Mary, mother of Christ and Mary, mother of Jacob the Younger. The man to their left could be John the Evangelist.

Some Roman soldiers are looking on, including possibly a centurion – the man clad in red. He has a downcast look. After Jesus breathes his last, Luke has him acclaim: 'This man was truly just'.

The men on horseback are Jewish scribes. They seem satisfied with the situation – after all, they were the ones who had pressed Pilate into having their rival crucified.

In the background, Tissot has painted a tomb where the body is to be deposited the same night. The pots in the foreground may contain edik (vinegar) that some joker offered Christ for water.

Tissot traveled to the Middle East in 1885, 1889 and 1896 to further his knowledge of the landscape, architecture and clothes and habits of the people, to illustrate the New Testament as truthfully as he could. The project resulted in 350 gouaches that were shown for the first time in Paris in 1894. All gouaches, including this one, are now in possession of the Brooklyn Museum.

Special and Second Collection

April 15 (Good Friday): Holy Land Collection

This annual collection not only supports the Holy Places, but above all provides for those pastoral, charitable, educational and social works which the Church supports in the Holy Land for the welfare of the Christian brethren and of the local communities. "Moreover, for two consecutive years, the Christians of the Holy Land have celebrated Easter and Christmas in a sort of isolation, without the warmth and solidarity of pilgrims visiting the Holy Places and local communities. Families have suffered beyond measure, more from the lack of work than from the immediate effects of the pandemic itself. It is by the express wish of the Popes that the collection "Pro Terra Sancta" was begun and continues to be taken up on the day of the saving Passion of our Lord, Good Friday. It is not something ancient or outdated, because it expresses above all our awareness of being rooted in the proclamation of redemption, which spread from Jerusalem and reached us all. The gesture of offering, even a small one, but by everyone, like the widow's mite, allows our brothers and sisters to continue to live, to hope and to offer a living witness to the Word made flesh in places and on the streets that saw his presence."

Will and Estate Planning

Have you considered remembering St. Patrick's in your will or estate plans? A bequest through a Last Will and Testament is the simplest way of creating a lasting legacy of support for St. Pat's. Bequests should be made out to: "The Bishop of the Roman Catholic Diocese of Wheeling-Charleston, or his successors in office," with a specification of the purpose for which the bequest is to be used (i.e. "for the use of St. Patrick Parish, Weston).

When Should Catholics Not Receive Holy Communion?

- If you have a mortal sin on your soul. Some serious sins include (but are not limited to) being married outside the church, being unmarried but living together or purposely not attending Sunday Mass or holy days of obligation. For more info on what constitutes a mortal sin, refer to the Catechism of the Catholic Church 1857 - 1859.
- If you have not observed the Eucharistic Fast one hour before receiving. Plan to eat your breakfast after Mass!
- If you have not yet received First Communion.

Why Can't Non-Catholics Receive Holy Communion?

Because Catholics believe that the celebration of the Eucharist is a sign of the reality of the oneness of faith, life, and worship, members of those churches with whom we are not yet fully united are not admitted to Holy Communion.

For those who cannot receive Eucharist at this time, we welcome you to join in our liturgy, to pray and sing with us. Please remain in the pew during the Communion Procession, offering your heartfelt prayers to our God of love and mercy. We eagerly await the time when you will join us at the Eucharistic table!

Parish Membership & Benefits:

To be considered an "active" member of any parish (and thus eligible for Sacraments, sponsor eligibility, and the "Active Parishioner Rate of tuition" at a Catholic school), the parish takes into account the following things. First, to receive a discount at a Catholic School or to receive a sacrament, the children MUST attend weekend Mass. Second, family & individual involvement in parish life and ministries are taken into consideration. Mass attendance is only able to be tracked accurately via collection envelopes. If you are not receiving envelopes currently, please contact the parish office. Parishioners over 18 should register as a household to help us keep records accurate and up-to-date.

The Sanctuary Lamp is burning April 10—23, 2022, in memory of the 63 million plus babies killed by abortion in our country in the last 49 years.

Why is Mass Offered for Specific People?

The greatest prayer that we have as Christians is the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass. At each Mass, Christ's Sacrifice on Calvary is renewed and the graces achieved on the Cross are applied to souls for their salvation. This is why we have Masses offered for particular intentions.

Sanctuary Candle Intentions

The red Sanctuary Lamp by the tabernacle burns to remind us of the Eucharistic presence of Jesus Christ. It is a mark of honor to remind the faithful of the Real Presence of Christ, and is a profession of their love and affection for our Lord. If you wish to have the Sanctuary Lamp burning in memory or honor of a loved one, or to honor a special occasion, please contact the parish office. The cost of the candle is $20.00. It will burn for two weeks. The memorial will also be published in the Bulletin.

RCIA Prayer

Heavenly Father, we thank You for the gift of faith and for the Catholic Church. We pray for those You are calling to Yourself. May all in our community open their hearts to the fullness of Your love. Encourage others to seek a greater understanding of You through us. Allow our parish of St. Alphonsus Liguori to be a welcoming spiritual home and a light to all.

O blessed apostle, St. Paul, greatest of all converts, who labored unceasingly for the conversion of other souls, inspire us with the ardor of your zeal that we may pray and work for the conversion of our brethren, redeemed in the blood of Christ but not as yet blessed with the full light of his truth.

Eternal God, please send to us, according to your divine will, souls whom you have called, and pour out your Holy Spirit to work through us to set all our hearts afire for Your Kingdom.

We ask this through Your Son Jesus, who is the Way, the Truth, and the Life for all.
Amen.

Abigail Lewellyn

Hi my name is Abigail Lewellyn and I am from Buckhannon, West Virginia. I am joining St. Patrick's Catholic Church because I started attending with my husband through our engagement last year. I always had the interest of joining Catholicism and now was the right time. I am a Sonographer at St. Joseph's Hospital and the United Vascular and Vein Center. The Patron Saint I have chosen is Saint Monica because she is the Patron Saint of wives. I have learned so much from my RCIA classes, but most importantly I have learned how to keep and grow a close relationship with God.

Jennifer Eiler

I was born in WV but moved every 3 years after my father joined the USAF all around the U.S. and Europe.

I am passionate about learning; I love to learn, and I love helping others learn.

I have been married for almost 18 years to my husband Rob and I have 3 children, Jack, Kaylee, and Bryce.

I attended and graduated from Shady Spring High School in Shady Spring, WV and Glenville State University (College)

I work at LCHS as a History Teacher

I want to make an impact on my family's and my students' lives that allow them to become the best people they can be!

My favorite prayer is the "Our Father" it is one that I have said in my youth and know by heart.

I chose St. Catherine of Alexandria as my Patron Saint because when I prayed about my saint she kept coming to me. She is listed as the Patron Saint of students and philosophers which connects to my profession.

I have learned so much from the RCIA program. I discovered that I had learned a lot of the things taught in this class before I had abandoned my faith, but not necessarily in a way that connected with me. I had a lot of misconceptions about the Catholic faith and the more I learned the more I connected because.

The minute I walked through the doors for the very first time I felt I belonged there. My interest in my faith started to grow after 26 years of abandoning my faith.

Ryan Jeffries

I was born and raised in Lewis county and have lived here majority of my life. I attended West Virginia University from the Fall of 2008 till the Summer of 2013 where I graduated with a bachelor's degree in Exercise Physiology. I currently am employed at G.J. Garton Insurance Agency as an insurance agent. I am blessed to have great employers' and co-workers alike. I have two wonderful sons that mean the world to me. They are the driving force behind everything I do and push me to succeed. We are very fortunate to have a woman in our lives that is loving, caring and selfless. She loves my children and I, unconditionally. I cannot praise her enough.

I want to continue to grow in my faith with the Lord and be the best man and father I can be. I aspire to be the best role model for my children. Someone they can look up to and know even though things can get tough, if you have faith in the lord and strive to be your best, things will work out with his guidance.

My favorite devotion came from Pope John Paul II "Banish from their hearts whatever might endanger peace. Enlighten our rulers that they may guarantee and defend the great gift of peace. May all peoples on earth become brothers and sisters. May longed for peace blossom forth and reign always over for us all." I hope it resonates with each and everyone here as it did me.

I have learned a lot from the RCIA program over these past several months. The thing that stood out the most to me is that we can't have just the church without sacred scripture, sacred tradition and Magisterium. They work together and none can stand without the other two.

Emma Cogar

My name is Emma Cogar and I am from Weston WV. I'm passionate about working with children, particularly through babysitting. I have two wonderful parents who work hard to provide for our family-- my mom works as a receptionist at a doctor's office and my dad works out of town on bridges. Eventually, I plan on going to school for nursing. My favorite Catholic prayer is the Hail Mary and I've learned much about the Catholic faith through the RCIA program.

RCIA Catechumens and Candidates

Jeff Lynch

Jeff Lynch is a Weston resident, previously residing in Nutter Fort. He attended Fairmont State University where he earned a Business Administration degree and is currently retired. Jeff has been married for 51 years, is blessed with 3 children, and 4 grandchildren. Jeff is passionate about living according to the golden rule and treating others the way that he would like to be treated and when asked about his goals and aspirations Jeff says he simply desires to live another day. Jeff has decided to become Catholic to worship with family & friends and to deepen his faith in Christ. He has learned much from St. Patrick's RCIA program and states that prior misconceptions and concerns have been resolved during classes. Jeff chose St. Roche as a patron saint as he shares in St. Roche's love for dogs and his favorite Catholic prayer is the "Our Father."

Cameron Ross

I am Cameron Ross, and I live in both Weston and Jane Lew, West Virginia. I am passionate about business, school, and civic engagement. I am attending Washington and Lee University, located in Lexington, Virginia, wherein I plan to major in both business administration and finance. I work in hospitality in preparation for college, but I hope to work as a business consultant and eventually attend law school.

My favorite Catholic prayer is the Prayer to Saint Michael the Archangel due to the spiritual strength and comfort it provides me in time of need. My Patron Saint is Saint Matthew, the patron of bankers and accountants, not only because his previous profession had to do with business, but because of the powerful gospel he wrote which brought multitudes of people to the Church and his discipleship to Christ.

RCIA has taught me how to understand the meaning behind every part of the Mass, what we as Catholics believe, and most importantly, how to stay strong in the Faith. I am becoming Catholic because I have been intrigued since a young age about the beginning of Christianity. After praying and learning more about her deep tradition and early foundation, I was resolved in my decision to convert to the Catholic Church.

Joe Rowh

Hello, my name is Joseph Rowh. I am passionate about Jesus, exercise, hiking, helping others, learning and I could go on. I currently live alone with my dog Izzy. Went to the International Academy of Design and Technology in Fairmont, WV. I currently work as a carpenter, run my own computer business, and volunteer when able. My goals are to build a happy and secure life with a family some day and to do the lords work and travel the world. And always keep learning. My favorite Catholic Prayer is the prayer to Micheal. My patron Saint is Saint Augustine. I chose him because of the profound connection I feel with him, and how much my life story correlates with his. Was save in August as well. Several things. From the RCIA program I have learned what it means to be a true Christian. I am joining the Catholic Church because I believe in the doctrine and because that is where the lord has led me.

Emily Marie Terpening

Growing up in a military family I've lived all over the United States and graduated high school in Fort Worth, Texas. I believe in strong family and community values, so being an active member in the community is very important to me. I enjoy outside activities with loved ones and have found a passion in creating delicious food that brings everyone together. Currently I am a Physical Education teacher at St. Pat's and it is my goal to have a classroom of my own, and right now I am currently enrolled at WGU obtaining a teaching degree in Mathematics!

I have been given the opportunity to attend St. Pat's church for about two years now and everyday seems like a blessing. I decided to join the church since, I feel love and encouragement of all the parish members. While attending the RCIA program I have learned that all the acts in our life show the presence of God's grace whether its big or small, but I understand that there is so much more to learn. To help me through my journey I have chosen Saint Marie Amandine (patron saint of laughter), since we have a similar belief that laughter can always make you feel better.

I would like to send a small thank you to all the parish members for supporting me through this journey, and it is my hope that we can grow together as a family.

Aquinas Medal Presented

Father Odeck presented seventh grade student, Marley Riley with her Aquinas medal after Mass on Friday, April 8. Marley was announced as this year's recipient in February.

The St. Thomas Aquinas recipient is someone who, like St. Thomas is focused on academics and practices virtue through their Christ-like behavior.

Congratulations Marley! We are very proud of you!

We Have Baby Chicks

Mrs. Moody's first grade class was full of "eggitement" this week as the eggs began to hatch. By the end of the week, thirteen baby chicks were chirping away in the classroom. The students named each of the eggs before they hatched and Mrs. Moody initialed them so they could keep track. However, that proved futile as they hatched so quickly that they can't be certain who is who. The students will still name the chicks the names they picked out. They will just have to decide which name goes with which chick. We are waiting patiently to see which one is Optimus Prime and which one is Wonder Woman. On Friday, the students held the baby chicks for a few minutes!

40 Cans for 40 Days Food Drive

WE NEED YOUR HELP!

The Knights of Columbus 40 Cans for 40 Days food drive is underway. They need our help, they to reach their goal of collecting 4000 pounds of non-perishable food for a local food pantry. We understand that the prices of everything we buy have increased in recent months. Making ends meet is tough, but we aren't going hungry. Most of us have things we can give up or cut back on. Many in our community don't have that option.

Bags for you to fill are located in the church vestibule. Thank you to everyone who has helped do far.

The Knights of Columbus will meet on the first Tuesday of each month at 7:00 p.m. in the cafeteria.
