WE WILL LEAVE MASS IN SILENCE DURING THE SEASON OF LENT.

The Fifth Sunday of Lent

"Let him who is without sin among you be the first to cast a stone..." –John 8:7

The Gospel is from St. John, 8:1-11 and is about the woman caught in adultery. "The two of them were left on their own, the wretched woman and Mercy. But the Lord, having smitten them with the dart of injustice, does not even deign to watch them go but turns his gaze away from them and once more writes on the ground with his finger. But when the woman was left alone and they had all gone, he lifted up his eyes to the woman. We have already heard the voice of justice; let us now hear the voice of gentleness. I think that woman was the more terrified when she heard the Lord say, 'Let him who is without sin among you be the first to throw a stone at her,' . . . fearing now that she would be punished by him, in whom no sin could be found. But he, who had driven away her adversaries with the tongue of justice, now looking at her with the eyes of gentleness, asks her, 'Has no one condemned you?' She replies, 'No one, Lord.' And he says, 'Neither do I condemn you; I who perhaps you feared would punish you, because in me you have found no sin.' Lord, can it be that you favour sinners? Assuredly not. See what follows: 'Go and sin no more.' Therefore, the Lord also condemned sin, but not the woman' (St Augustine, In Ioann. Evang., 33, 5-6).

Jesus, who is the just One, does not condemn the woman; whereas these people are sinners, yet they pass sentence of death. God's infinite mercy should move us always to have compassion on those who commit sins, because we ourselves are sinners and in need of God's forgiveness.

Protecting God's Children

St. Patrick Church takes seriously this 'VIRTUS' pursuit of excellence in our community. With the Diocese of Wheeling-Charleston, we are committed to making every environment – a safe environment. All employees and volunteers are required to complete VIRTUS Training. Participants of this training complete short video modules to learn how to best protect the vulnerable in our community. These short sessions empower participants to accurately identify and correctly report all instances of suspected child abuse. To create or update your account, please go to virtusonline.org.

Thank you for your continued support in making the environment at St. Patrick Church and school safe for everyone.

To report an incidence of suspected child sexual abuse, please contact your local law enforcement agency, or you may confidentially contact WV Child Protective Services at 800.352.6513. In addition to civil authorities, to report suspected cases of sexual abuse of children by personnel of the Diocese of Wheeling-Charleston to the Diocese, contact one of the following designees at 1.888.434.6237 or 304.233.0880: Mr. Bryan Minor, ext. 263; Mr. Tim Bishop, ext. 353; Sr. Martha Gomez, ext. 264. Or you may call Rev. Don Higgs, 304.685.2367, the Office of Safe Environment at 304.230.1504, or Victims Assistance Coordinator Erin McFarland at 304.559.6742. Please visit www.dwc.org under "Accountability" for additional information and reporting methods.

"Forward, always forward, everywhere forward! We must not be held back by debts, bad years or by difficulties of the times. Man's adversity is God's opportunity."

Rite of Election & Continuing Call to Conversion

In an unfortunate turn of events, violent gusts of wind prevented most of this year's Catechumens & Candidates from attending the Rite of Election & Call to Continuing Conversion ceremony in Wheeling—a very special part of the OCIA journey where the bishop formally “elects” participants to receive the sacraments at the Easter Vigil.

One of our participants, Justin Stark (pictured above), who stayed in Wheeling the night prior to the Rite of Election was able to participate in this ceremony with his father, Randy Stark and sponsor Gwen Masterman.

To make up for this missed event, we decided to celebrate those in our parish who are coming into full communion with the the Catholic Church this Sunday with a small ceremony. Join us in welcoming...

We are pleased to announce the installation of new front doors at St. Patrick School, a vital improvement designed to enhance security and safety for our students, staff, and visitors. These doors were purchased with the goal of strengthening our school's protective measures while maintaining a welcoming environment for our community. This project was made possible through the Capital Matching Grant from the Diocese of Wheeling-Charleston, and we are grateful for their generous support. We also extend our appreciation to City Construction Company for their excellent work in completing this important upgrade.

Candidacy Mass for Mr. Joe Derico

Our favorite seminarian, Joe Derico will say yes to continuing his priestly formation on Friday, April 11 at his Candidacy Mass at St. Patrick Church at 10:00 a.m.

We will not have an 8:15 Mass on this day. This will be an all school Mass. Because this is a special occasion, both the middle and outer pews on the right side of the church will be for Joe's family, friends and our parishioners. Our students will sit in the middle and outer pews on the left side of the church.

Please pray for Joe and all seminarians as they discern a call to the priesthood.
