TRINITY SUNDAY

The dogma of faith which forms the object of the feast is this: There is one God and in this one God there are three Divine Persons; the Father is God, the Son is God, the Holy Spirit is God. Yet there are not three Gods, but one, eternal, incomprehensible God! The Father is not more God than the Son, neither is the Son more God than the Holy Spirit. The Father is the first Divine Person; the Son is the second Divine Person, begotten from the nature of the Father from eternity; the Holy Spirit is the third Divine Person, proceeding from the Father and the Son. No mortal can fully fathom this sublime truth. But I submit humbly and say: Lord, I believe, help my weak faith.

Why is this feast celebrated at this particular time? It may be interpreted as a finale to all the preceding feasts. All three Persons contributed to and shared in the work of redemption. The Father sent His Son to earth, for "God so loved the world as to give His only-begotten Son." The Father called us to the faith. The Son, our Savior Jesus Christ, became man and died for us. He redeemed us and made us children of God. He ever remains the liturgist par excellence to whom we are united in all sacred functions. After Christ's ascension the Holy Spirit, however, became our Teacher, our Leader, our Guide, our Consoler. On solemn occasions a thanksgiving Te Deum rises spontaneously from Christian hearts.

The feast of the Most Holy Trinity may well be regarded as the Church's Te Deum of gratitude over all the blessings of the Christmas and Easter seasons; for this mystery is a synthesis of Christmas, Epiphany, Easter, Ascension and Pentecost. This feast, which falls on the first Sunday after Pentecost, should make us mindful that actually every Sunday is devoted to the honor of the Most Holy Trinity, that every Sunday is sanctified and consecrated to the triune God. Sunday after Sunday we should recall in a spirit of gratitude the gifts which the Blessed Trinity is bestowing upon us. The Father created and predestined us; on the first day of the week He began the work of creation. The Son redeemed us; Sunday is the "Day of the Lord," the day of His resurrection. The Holy Spirit sanctified us, made us His temple; on Sunday the Holy Spirit descended upon the infant Church. Sunday, therefore, is the day of the Most Holy Trinity.

Bishop Brennan Announces Plan to Eliminate the Cathedraticum Assessment and Reduce the PHRA Assessment for 2025.

Bishop Brennan announced on May 29 that for the year of 2025, parishes will not pay a Cathedraticum assessment to the diocese, and the PHRA assessment is reduced from 6% to 4% on parish income.

OFFICE OF THE BISHOP

DIOCESE OF WHEELING-CHARLESTON

1311 BYRON STREET
POST OFFICE BOX 230
WHEELING, WEST VIRGINIA 26003

May 29, 2025

Dear Faithful of the Diocese of Wheeling-Charleston,

In January, the late Pope Francis declared 2025 to be a Jubilee Year of Hope. My advisors and I discussed how to make this a Jubilee Year of Hope for our parishes. A major effort to win back Catholics who have walked away from us and to share our faith in Christ with the religiously unaffiliated will soon be underway, with the goal of strengthening people's faith in God's love for them and their hope for salvation. I hope you will pray and work for its success.

We also thought that a material benefit would be appropriate in this Year of Hope, since the Jubilee years among the ancient Jews and in more recent times have been occasions for forgiving debts and lessening the burdens borne by the people. With that in mind and after consultation with various diocesan bodies, I am happy to announce the following plan:

1. There will be no Cathedraticum assessment, the tax forwarded to the Diocese on parish income, in calendar year 2025.
2. The Priests' Health and Retirement Board has approved a reduction of the PHRA assessment on parishes from six percent (6%) to four percent (4%) for calendar year 2025.
3. Although operating debt should in justice be repaid, regardless of its date of origin, parish operating debt owed to the Diocese and incurred prior to July 1, 2020, will be forgiven. WesBanco and in-house diocesan loans to parishes, however, will remain in force.
4. Parishes carrying qualifying debt will receive a separate letter from Mr. Patrick Henry, the Chief Financial Officer of the Diocese, detailing the amounts that will be written off.

I trust that this debt forgiveness and reduction of some diocesan financial obligations for 2025 will afford all parishes the ability to remain current with their just debts going forward. It also gives parishes the opportunity to eliminate or reduce other just debts and to fund sustaining investments, such as with the West Virginia Catholic Foundation, where funds deposited can help solidify a parish's financial position for years to come.

Invoking the intercession of Mary, the Mother of God, and of St. Joseph, the patron of our Diocese, I pray that God may continue to bless you, your families and this beautiful Mountain State.

Sincerely in Christ,

+Mark E. Brennan

Diocesan Envisioning Team Creates Evangelization Plan with the Catholic Leadership Institute

The Diocese of Wheeling-Charleston has completed a comprehensive envisioning process which led to the development of a new Evangelization Plan that leads our diocesan vision of commitment to Christ's Great Commission to go make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

Using our core values of faith, hope, and charity, this plan has three priorities:

Formation defined as the intentional and ongoing process of educating, equipping, and spiritually developing individuals — both clergy and laity — who can effectively live out, effectively witness to, and proclaim the Gospel.

Infrastructure which means to equip the entire Diocese including the chancery, priests, deacons, parishes, and faithful with the tools they need to spread the Gospel.

Parish renewal which is to maintain the Church's relevance in an increasingly secular society through vision and strategy to revitalize our Parish Community.

Each priority has two goals that will be a guide for living out the Diocese of Wheeling-Charleston's purpose: Empowered by faith in the Gospel of Jesus Christ, our Diocesan purpose is to serve and evangelize, transforming us and our world into one joyful, united people who share divine communion.

Priority 1 Name: Formation

Definition: The intentional and ongoing process of educating, equipping, and spiritually developing individuals -- both clergy and laity -- who can effectively live out, effectively witness to, and proclaim the Gospel.

Rationale: A well-formed evangelizer proclaims the Gospel through both words and their way of life. Life-long formation ensures this witness flows from a personal relationship with Jesus Christ, guarding against error and enabling a clear presentation of the faith.

Goal 1: 50% of parishes will renew, retrain, and revitalize OCIA process by the end of 2026 (75% by the end of 2027).

Goal 2: By the end of the 2026/2027 school year, all diocesan Catholic schools will integrate an evangelization module into their religion curriculum for grades 5-12.

Priority 2 Name: Infrastructure

Definition: To equip the entire Diocese including the chancery, priests, deacons, parishes, and faithful with the tools they need to spread the Gospel.

Rationale: Many Catholics feel uncertain or unequipped when it comes to sharing their faith. By providing practical tools, resources, and support, we empower the Diocese, Chancery Staff, clergy, parishes, and laity to confidently and effectively proclaim the Gospel in their daily lives and ministries.

Goal 1: Identify human and financial resources responsible for evangelization at each level of Diocesan life by June 2026.

Goal 2: Create communication strategies that help animate evangelization activities at all levels of the Diocesan Church by March 2026.

Priority 3 Name: Parish Renewal

Definition: Maintaining the Church's relevance in an increasingly secular society through vision and strategy to revitalize our Parish Community.

Rationale: With many parishioners expressing their inability to speak confidently about their faith, this priority will increase engagement of all parishioners, especially the next generation of Catholics to make faith formation more appealing and attainable for all interested groups.

Goal 1: By the end of 2026, at least 75% of the parish communities throughout the diocese will have reached out to individuals who feel disconnected from the Church, those who have yet to know Christ, and those seeking a deeper connection to their faith to provide them with welcome and support.

Goal 2: By January 2027, 90% of Mass going parishioners will agree or strongly agree that their parish helps them grow spiritually by offering vibrant and engaging Sunday Masses.

Parishioner Still in Need of Living Liver Donor

Hi everyone, my name is Kelsea Butcher. Many of you know me and some may not. I am a busy mom of 2 beautiful girls Madlyn and Hayley and a new addition our puppy Milo. I am also happily married to my best friend and husband Trent Butcher. In my free time I enjoy spending time with my family and cuddling up with a good book.

The reason that I am reaching out is because I have a health condition that affects my liver. It has been an ongoing problem since I had my youngest daughter. Some days are better than others, but my doctors have told me that I need a liver transplant and finding someone to become my living donor could be my best option. I have always been independent and able to take care of myself. But now I am turning to my community for support. Please help me in finding a living-liver donor so that I can receive a life-saving transplant. I would truly appreciate it if you could share my story with others.

Anyone interested in being evaluated as a potential living donor should complete the online form at LivingDonorReg.UPMC.com
My blood type is B positive 📌

Thank you to everyone for helping me with this journey and please keep me in your prayers.

How does being a living liver donor work?

A living-donor liver transplant is a surgery in which a portion of the liver from a healthy living person is removed and placed into someone whose liver is no longer working properly.

The donor's remaining liver regrows and returns to its normal size, volume and capacity within a couple of months after the surgery. At the same time, the transplanted liver portion grows and restores normal liver function in the recipient. (mayoclinic)

The prayer & scripture group meets at 1 p.m. on Tuesday in the parish meeting room.

Join us for a Eucharistic Procession in honor of the Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ.

June 22, 2025

After the procession, we will have donuts and coffee in the cafeteria.

What is a Eucharistic Procession?

A Eucharistic procession is like a holy parade that brings Jesus, truly present in the Holy Eucharist, into the world that he loves. The Blessed Sacrament is placed in a monstrance and carried out of the church by a priest. A Eucharistic procession sometimes begins at one church and ends at another and is connected to the celebration of the Mass or a time of Adoration.

The procession can be a short walk around the neighborhood of a church or can stretch for miles and miles from start to finish. Along the way, Jesus is accompanied by priests, deacons, altar servers, and people of all ages. Together they can pray the Rosary, sing hymns, or walk in silent prayer. Processions are often planned for the Solemnity of Corpus Christi but can take place just about any time of the year. The altar servers or other members of the Eucharistic procession might carry a canopy, processional cross, candles, a thurible, or bells. One type of processional canopy, a baldacchino, is held over the monstrance by four servers holding a pole for each corner. This creates a sacred space that is set aside for the Eucharist during the movement of the procession. The processional cross is a large crucifix attached to a long handle that can be lifted high for all to see. The candles remind us of Jesus, the Light of the World, truly present in the Holy Eucharist. The thurible is filled with burning incense, which releases sweet-smelling smoke that rises to the sky, symbolizing our prayers rising to heaven. The bells incorporate another of our five senses, announcing that Jesus is here with us. A Eucharistic procession is a wonderful opportunity to worship our Lord and pray together as a community as we witness our faith publicly to the world.

HAPPY Father's Day

God our Father,
we give you thanks and praise
for fathers young and old.

We pray for young fathers,
newly embracing their vocations;
May they find the courage and
perseverance to balance work,
family, and faith in joy and
sacrifice.

We pray for our own fathers
who have supported and
challenged us;

May they continue to lead in
strong and gentle ways.

We remember our fathers
around the world whose children
are lost or suffering;

May they know that the God of compassion walks with them in their sorrow.

We pray for men who are not fathers but still mentor and guide us with fatherly love and advice.

We remember fathers,
grandfathers, and great-
grandfathers who are no longer
with us but who live forever in our memory and nourish us with
their love.

Amen.

The diocese description of a volunteer is very broad. It is NOT only individuals who work with children. Anyone involved in parish ministry over the age of 18 needs to complete Virtus training.

Organizations who meet on the church/school campus need to be compliant.
